

Promising Fisher Quint Opens Against Brockport

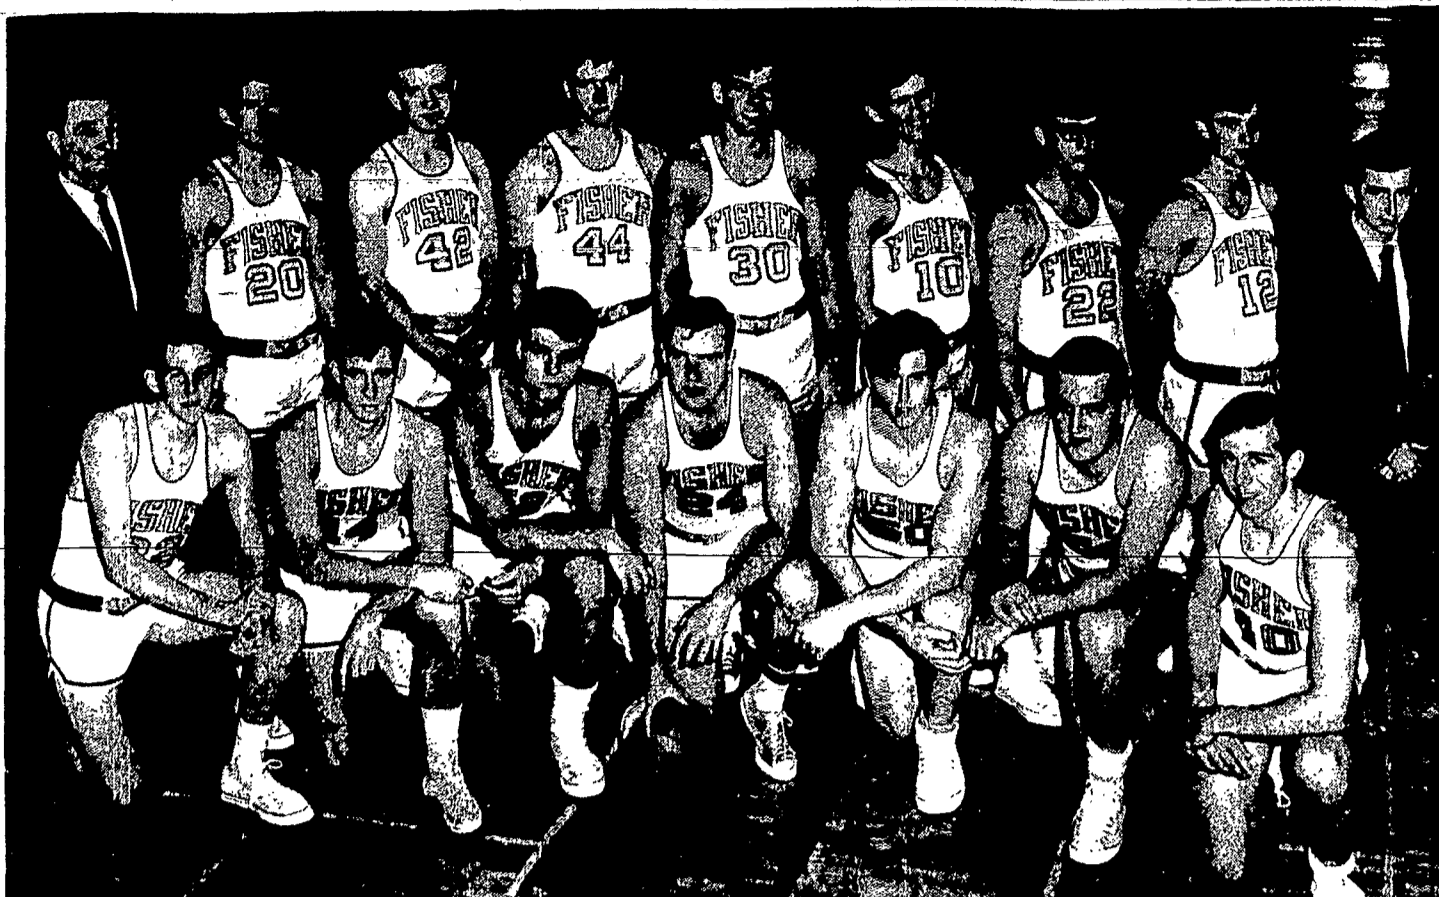

St. John Fisher will open its 1967-68 basketball campaign tonight (Friday, Dec. 2) in the Fisher Athletic Center with Brockport State furnishing the opposition.

Frosh teams from the two schools will tangle at 6:15 p.m. and the varsity competition will start at 8:15.

For the start of his sixth full season at Fisher, Cardinal Coach Bobby Wanzer has assembled the strongest squad in history at the East Avenue institution. He feels that his club will make up in shooting ability and willingness to run hard for any lack in depth of experience and over-all size.

The varsity has the services this year of the members of last year's freshman team that finished with 14 wins against two losses. Sophomores Dick Hessinger of Cardinal O'Hara in Kenmore and Bob Case of Bishop Kearney are almost certain starters.

Another sure bet is Billy O'Rourke, a junior transfer stu-

CYO Cage Loop Opens

The CYO Basketball League opened Sunday, Nov. 26 with great enthusiasm on the part of the coaches, players, cheerleaders and spectators.

Coach Tom Cotton's Blessed Sacrament high school team opened up the season again with a win by defeating St. John's of Rochester. This team has not been defeated in the past five years in competition in the CYO Basketball League.

All CYO games are played on Sunday afternoons. Parents and parishioners are invited to support their parish teams by attending the scheduled league games.

Knights Drub Fairport

By TIM BERGIN

McQuaid Jesuit High's basketball squad jumped off to a flying start last Friday at Fairport, overwhelming the Chiefs, 57-36.

This Saturday the Knights have a 7 o'clock War Memorial date with the tough Irondequoit Indians. Aquinas and Monroe clash in the nightcap.

In their opener under coach Ed Markey, the Knights displayed superior firepower and board control from the opening whistle and sprung a 20-5 first quarter deficit on their hosts.

Nick Combs, a 6-4 junior center tallied 10 of his 18 points in the period, hitting on his first 4 field attempts. The Chiefs attempted to regain their balance in the second quarter by shifting to a tight 3-2 man defense. The move slowed McQuaid's attack to 10 points but Fairport mustered only 8 points itself against the Knights' sticky man-to-man, and McQuaid led, 30-11 at halftime.

The second half saw the Fairporters battle the Knights on almost even terms, with McQuaid's attack being carried by the outside shooting of Brad Smith and Bob Comparato.

Smith finished with 12 points and Comparato 8, matching Pat Laveck's high of 8 for the losers.

ND's Prospects Good For New Cage Season

Elmira — The Notre Dame Crusaders hope to have a change of fortunes in the upcoming basketball season. Barring any unforeseen injury, ND will have the strongest and fastest team to hit the high school front in many a moon.

The backcourt is manned by All-City captain, high school All-American, Arnie Westervelt and the hustling Tim McGill. The pivot is handled by 6'5" Paul Busell. In the corners are 6'2" John Heher and 6'3" Junior Tom Russell. By January the squad hopes for the return of all-city basketball and foot-

Bombers Drop Aquinas In Cage Opener 56-49

By WHIT JOHNSON

A great second half effort, paced by the brilliant tactics of John Kokinda, gave the East Rochester Bombers a 56-49 victory over Aquinas Institute last Saturday in East Rochester.

Kokinda was dazzling with both his shooting and rebounding. His board play in the second half was the big reason for the Bomber victory. Both teams were playing for the first time this season, which resulted in a ragged first quarter. The home-standing Bombers held a 13-10 advantage after one period of play.

Aquinas forced to play "catch-up" basketball had troubles containing Kokinda and stopping the clutch shooting of Vinni Carozzi and Ron Deveys. Every time the Irish drew near, one of the Bomber trio would get "hot" and E.R. would regain the lead.

Aquinas' scoring ace, Jim Brady, scored 11 points in the first half before retiring with an upset stomach. With four minutes remaining the 8-foot-1 forward re-entered the game and added 8 more points to equal Kokinda's output of 19. The Irish outscored the Bombers in the second and fourth quarter but mustered only 5 points in the entire third quarter.

In the preliminary game the Aquinas junior varsity came from behind 53-48 to give coach Bob Rosmarino his initial victory as JV coach.

You're not going through that again are you? ...not when there's an easier way Sunbeam SNOW CHAMP Electric Snow Thrower MODEL ST 200. Why go through another year of tedious, back-breaking snow shoveling? Instead, just flip a switch on your Sunbeam Electric Snow Champ. It immediately swings into action—chopping an 18-inch path through the toughest snow drifts. Sunbeam's rugged 10 amp, hermetically-sealed power plant throws snow up to 30 feet away—at a rate of 250 shovelsful per minute. And because your Snow Champ is electric, there's never a worry about fuel, spark plugs or bulky, hard starting engines. The advanced design of the model ST200 features new tractor tread rear wheels with skid-type adjustable runners. Not only is it easier to handle, but also allows you to clean snow from any surface—from smooth concrete to a coarse gravel driveway. Where to throw snow is no problem either with the Snow Champ. The adjustable 180° Teflon non-stick swivel chute throws right or left, high or low anywhere in between. And the powerful headlight makes snow removal after dark an easy task. Of course, last, but not least—Sunbeam snow throwers are light enough to hang on the wall—out of the way.
