SCHOOL NEWS

Harley Boy Wins 'Bee'

John Thornton, 13, spelled "renown," to emerge as champion of McQuaid Jesuit High School's 11th annual spelling bee and winner of a four-year, full-tuition scholarship.

John, the youngest of three sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Thornton of 1669 Pittsford-Vicor Rd., Perinton, is an eighth grader at Harley School. Harley, the only non-parochial school to participate in this year's contest, was also the first such school ever to capture the grand prize.

Thornton's closest competitor was Michael Higgins, also 13, who is a McQuaid eighth grader and son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Higgins of 20 Stanfield Terrace.
