

Knights Edge Indians

By TIM BERGIN

McQuaid's snappy Knights outplayed a stubborn band of Irondequoit Indians last Saturday at the War Memorial, slipping away with a 45-42 win.

Junior center Nick Combs paced Coach Ed Markey's team to their second straight win with his second straight 18-point effort.

This Saturday McQuaid travels to Franklin for an 8 o'clock tilt with the formidable Quakers.

The Irondequoit game was a seesaw battle, typical of this lively rivalry, with the lead changing hands 18 times. The Indians managed a 12-11 first quarter advantage and inched ahead by 22-20 at the half despite four second-quarter field goals by Combs.

In the third period, though Irondequoit at one time stretched its lead by 5 points, Knight forward Mark Welt tallied four of his six buckets to put his team up, 34-33.

Then, with 2:05 left in the last quarter and the score even at 40-all, Bob Comparato popped in a jumper and Combs followed with what proved to be the winning layup. The Indians replied with a pair of free throws but then were unable to crack McQuaid's deep freeze. John Connolly clinched the Knight victory with a foul shot 8 seconds from the buzzer.

In gaining the win, the Knights worked effectively against board work, with Combs pulling down 13 rebounds and Connolly B. Brad Smith added 5 assists and good ball control to the Knights' effort.

At other levels, McQuaid's J.V. was idle, but the freshmen posted their first win, a 57-28 verdict over Churchville.

Mooney Downs Charlotte Five

Cardinal Mooney High School notched its second win of the young season as it defeated Charlotte High School last week at 77-40.

The defensive minded Cardinals exploded with a 22-3 first period lead and coasted to a 48-17 advantage at the half. Mooney's offense demonstrated its strength by opening up the gap 69-29 as it forced Charlotte into a number of ball-handling mistakes.

Junior Doug Farrell and Senior Gary Braun led the Cardinal scoring with 15 and 14 points respectively. Also adding to the offensive punch were juniors Dick Felber with 12 points, Terry Meagher with 8, and soph Ken Wehner with 8 points.

Mooney will seek its 3rd straight this Saturday when it meets undefeated Webster Central of the County League.

Mynderse Beats DeSales, 65-54

In a game filled with 41 personal fouls, the Mynderse Blue Devils outlasted the DeSales Saints of Geneva, 65-54. The big difference was the superb play of Senior Vinnie Giglio who tossed in 21 points and was always there in the clutch.

The first period was close and the Saint's were holding the undefeated Devils. But in the 2nd period Mynderse looked like they were going to romp. Stump Roulan came off the bench to score 4 quick baskets and narrowed the De Sales deficit to 6. Big Bob Marshall and Bill Dinan combined rebounding strength and accuracy to give DeSales a brief lead. But Mynderse came back with a bucket to knot the score at the half.

In the third period Mynderse burst into a 9-point lead, a lead they never relinquished. Allie Klestinec and Zo Toner poured on the steam. Marshall pulled down 21 rebounds, high for both clubs.

Migrant Worker Named For Papal Honor

Brownsville, Tex. — (NC) — Two laymen—a migrant worker and a bank president — have been named by Pope Paul VI to receive Benemerenti medals for their service to the Church.

The medal winners are Eideo Salinas, a migrant farm worker, and A.J. Tony Carnest, president of the Pan American Bank here.

The two will be presented the medals by Bishop Humberto S. Medeiros of Brownsville at ceremonies Dec. 20 at the Shrine of San Juan, Texas.

Salinas, who was born and lives in La Joya, Texas, is the father of nine children. During the winter months he drives a tractor for a small farm in La Joya, and in the spring and summer works as a harvester and mechanic following the crops through the midwest.

Rochester Native Helps Chicago 'Keep Its Cool'

Techny, Ill. — The "long hot summer" forecast for Chicago's Negro ghettos, failed to materialize. Why, and how did Chicago keep its "cool"? There are as many answers as there are volunteers, working in the ghettos this past summer all striving to prevent another Detroit or Newark or Milwaukee happening in Chicago. Among these volunteers was Rochesterian Leon Abbey, seminarian of the Divine Word Missionaries.

Faced with the difficulty of trying to establish an effective program and yet make it interesting and rewarding for both the young and the old, the seminarians formulated a three-point program aimed to educate, create enjoyment, and instill a community awareness in the ghetto district of Chicago, Lawndale.

Vatican Christmas Stamp

Vatican City — (RNS) — The 1967 Christmas stamp issued by the Vatican City Post Office will depict a Nativity scene from an old icon of the Eastern Rite Catholic Church.

Of three denominations, the stamp will be the ninth in a special Christmas series started in 1959.

Friday Club Celebrates 25 Years

Twenty-five years existence of the First Friday Luncheon Club was marked Dec. 1 at Hotel Sheraton with an address by Bishop Kearney and tributes to priests and laymen who have kept the club going.

Bishop Kearney, after having distributed copies of the Encyclical Letter of Pope Paul VI, "Mystery of Faith" spoke of the devotion to the Sacred Heart and its meaning to men in all walks of life.

He was presented with a book by Father Robert L. Gannon, S.J., autographed to a "contemporary and friend" at Fordham University. A Christmas remembrance was given Bishop Kearney by Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus sponsors of the Friday club and by club members.

Father Raymond G. Heisel, pastor of Holy Trinity Church, Webster and the club's first moderator spoke for his successors. Family Court Judge Emmett J. Schnepf, toastmaster, spoke for his fellow chairmen including George L. McKay, first chairman.

Aquinas 5 Divides Two; Faces Madison Tomorrow

Aquinas split a pair of games last weekend, edging past Canandaigua 51-49, and falling to Monroe, 66-64, in triple overtime.

The Irish will try to even their season record tomorrow night in their first home game of the year.

Coach Jerry McGuire's Irish entertain Madison High of the Interscholastic League and need a victory to hit the 500 mark. The Irish are 1-2 overall.

At Canandaigua Aquinas took a 10-9 first quarter lead as both teams had trouble finding the range. Both teams starting hitting after that and the Irish took a 27-24 halftime lead. With Don Bauch of the Academy leading the way, Canandaigua overtook Aquinas, 42-40, at the third period stop.

Aquinas took the lead in the final period, connecting on two all-important free throws to win 51-49. Dick Barron, with 12 points, was the only Irish player in double figures.

Playing in the War Memorial on Saturday, Aquinas ran out of steam after coming from behind to tie Monroe in the third period and then forcing three overtime periods.

The regulation game ended with both teams tied at 53 points. By the end of the first overtime it was tied up at 60 points; the second overtime period ended at 62 all. Monroe's Larry Lewis bombed the hoop twice in the third overtime to edge Aquinas, 66-64. Lewis took high game honors with 27 points, while Jim Brady of Aquinas collected 26. Teammate Dan Hogan contributed 20 points.
