B.S. Quint Maintains Win Streak

The top games in the Grammar school divisions saw:

St. Joseph's, Penfield, suffer their first loss of the season by being defeated in overtime play to Blessed Sacrament in a cliff-hanger; St. Bridget's squeezed by Holy Ghost; St. Cecilia's downed St. Michael's; Mother of Sorrows defeated Holy Family all by close scores.

In the High School division:

Holy Rosary handed Sacred Heart their first loss of the season by defeating them by one point to take the lead in the Western Division. Christ the King won their first game of the season by defeating St. Michael's. St. Augustine vs. St. Louis game will be rescheduled since they could not play their game. (Wednesday, Dec. 13—7:30 p.m.)

Kearney Men Dominate All-Catholic X-C Team

Seven area runners have received All-Catholic cross-country ratings as a result of the compiled season's performances.

Kearney co-captain Tom Aman is a three-letter man in cross-country, the diocesan champ this year and JV champ in sophomore year.

Consistently turning in fine performances, he is a versatile runner, having competed in races from the 220-yard dash up to the 2 mile run. Besides being treasurer of the Varsity club, this senior is co-captain of spring track and is a member of the National Honor Society.

Junior Jeff Eichner, a Kearney honor student, placed second in the diocesan meet in his first year out for cross-country. BK sophomore Mike D'Errico finished third in the diocesan, improving over his 10th place as a freshman.

McQuaid sophomore Dean Stanley, honor student and fourth place finisher in the diocesan, won the JV diocesan as a freshman. Junior Bob Lawrence, McQuaid honor student who placed seventh in the diocesan, won the frosh diocesan crown two years ago.

Kearney senior Nick Habes placed sixth in the diocesan in his second year of running. As a freshman he led the little Kings to a sweep of the freshman diocesan.

Bruce Velan, a BK senior, ran cross-country for the first time this year. Eleventh in the diocesan, he is primarily a middle-distance runner with a half-mile time of 2:04.

Achieving honorable mention were Mooney's Larry Cullen, Aquinas' Jim Crawford, Paul Ford and Jim Cronmiller; McQuaid's Ed Robertson and Phil Horton, and Kearney's Jim Maley who make up the seven next best runners in the Catholic League.

Of this "top 14" four are seniors, five are juniors, and six are sophomores. The league can look to a strong future.

Notre Dame 5 Faces Mooney Tomorrow

It will be a rematch of last year's Diocesan basketball finalists as Notre Dame of Elmira and Cardinal Mooney meet this Saturday at Mooney. The Crusaders brought a 16-5 record into last year's contest and lost to Mooney as a last ditch rally fell short.

Notre Dame, coached by Warren Tessier, has six veterans returning. The best of these and one of the best around is 5 ft. 11 in. senior guard Arnie Westervelt, who will captain the team.

He will be aided by guard Tim McGill, 6 ft. Senior John Heher, 6-2 junior Tom Russell, 6-5 Paul Bussell, 6-4 Kevin Frawley and Junior John Harris. The Crusaders present a fast breaking, high scoring outfit that passed the 100 point mark in three of last year's games.

Mooney, on the other hand, fields a young ball club with only two seniors on its squad. The Cardinals, who posted a 13-3 record last season, have won their first three contests defeating Marshall, Charlotte and Webster while keeping their opponents down to a 35-point average output.

Returning for Mooney are 5 ft. 11 in. junior guard Doug Farrell, 6-2 junior pivot Dick Felber, 5-11 junior guard Terry Meagher and 6 ft. senior forward Gary Braun. The fifth starter for Mooney will be 6-foot sophomore forward Ken Wehner.

The Cardinals' style of play is in direct contrast to Notre Dame's as they depend on an aggressive, pressing defense and a ball control type offense.

Geneseo Downs Fisher Matmen

Geneso State College eked out a one-point wrestling win over St. John Fisher at Fisher last week to successfully open their 1967-68 mat season. The final team scoring was 19-18 in favor of the Knights. Fisher is now 0-2 for the year.

Cardinal grapplers Jimmy Reo and Jeff Kaier pinned their opponents to remain undefeated for the year. Both are freshmen. The other Fisher points came on a forfeit and Tom Hens' win by a decision in the 167-pound class.

Coach John Spencer's squad wrestled at Potsdam State Wednesday (Dec. 13) and will be challenged at home this afternoon (Fri. Dec. 15) by McMaster University.

Tech Edges Kearney, 57-53

Bishop Kearney lost its second ball game of the season last Saturday evening against Edison Tech, 57-53. The loss gives Kearney a one and two record, the win coming the previous weekend against the same Edison team, 36-35. The Kings had previously lost to Batavia.

Kearney went into the second half with only a three point lead and fought desperately to hold onto it. They lost their two high pointmen Dan Howland and Dave DeVoldre early in the final period on fouls, however. With these two men missing, Edison's Rick Boehler was able to get in close and sink six late points to pull the game out of the bag. Boehler led Tech scoring with 27 points.

Bishop Kearney's J.V. team won its third game against Edison, 79-47, for a 3-0 season's mark.

Knights Take Quakers In 58-54 Cage Thriller

By TIM BERGIN

McQuaid invaded Franklin High last Saturday ,struggled in the Quakers' wake for 31 minutes, then pulled out a 58-54 win, the third straight of the season.

The unbeaten Knights snatched the victory away with 8 straight points in the last two minutes, climaxing an uphill battle from an early 12-point deficit.

Tonight they'll have an even tougher pull against a powerful Madison team in an 8:15 game at McQuaid.

Highly regarded Franklin, bouncing back from a loss to Madison the previous night, rode a barrage of deadly jumpers to an initial 9-0 margin and an 18-10 first period lead. At one point in the second quarter the Knights trailed by 12 but finally settled down and whittled the count to 32-26 at the half.

In the third stanza, steady foul-shooting and ball control kept McQuaid in range, and at the break the Knights had edged up to 46-42. They finally tied at 46-all on a jumper by John Connolly but Franklin sprinted for 3 baskets in a row to apparently decide the issue.

With 1:30 remaining, however, Nick Combs hit on a follow up shot and Brad Smith fired in a 20-footer to knot things at 54-54. Then Bob Comparato stole a Franklin pass and the Knights froze the ball until Combs meshed a pair of fouls with 28 seconds left. Smith iced the victory with 2 more free throws in the last six seconds.

Combs again sparked the team, notching 19 points and 11 rebounds, while Connolly hit a career high of 16 points. Mel Marshall and Gil Robinson paced the losers with 17 apiece. The game was really decided at the foul line where McQuaid hit 18 of 23 against Franklin's 2 for 7.

In the preliminary, McQuaid's J.V. came from 19 points down but finally ost in two overtimes, 77-73 despite Joe Cook's 24 points and John McLane's 17.

McQuaid's freshmen meanwhile upped their record to 2-1 with a 47-33 decision at Penfield, as Will Martinez scored 14 points.

Frosh Help Fisher 5 To Win Over Waterloo

Bolstered by freshmen Tim Finegan and Jim Brooks, both of whom were playing in varsity competition for the first time, St. John Fisher College outlasted Waterloo Lutheran University at home Saturday, 71-61, for the first Cardinal basketball win of the season.

Finegan, a product of Cathedral Prep, Erie, Pennsylvania, scored 16 points, Brooks, a 6'5" graduate of Madison High, was impressive in defense under the boards.

Billy O'Rouke was the top Fisher scorer with 18 points.

The Cards, now 1-2 for the year, lost their second game to Oswego State in in Oswego December 5 as the superior Lakers handed them a 71-62 defeat. O'Rouke hit for 23 points to pace Fisher.

Fisher will entertain McMaster University at home tonight (Friday, Dec. 15) and will travel to Toronto tomorrow to meet St. Michael's College.

Indoor Track At Kearney

Bishop Kearney High School began its second indoor track season with its first practice on Monday, Dec. 4. Brother J. M. Delibero is in charge of coaching the runners while Mr. Frank Liacona is coaching the field events men.

The runners and field events men will be practicing on the school grounds until the arrival of the bad weather forces them to work out in the basement halls of the school.

Although the team schedule is still tentative, the meets definitely on the book include: 1) a developmental meet at the Manlius field house at the University of Syracuse, Dec. 12; 2) a relay carnival at the University of Syracuse, Jan. 20; 3) the Fifth Annual Indoor Track Championship at the University of Syracuse, Feb. 14.
