Christmas Program At Hospital

Patients at St. James Mercy Hospital were treated to a "double feature" of entertainment Dec. 6 when members of the Springwater Junior Band and students of the DiVinney-Losey School of Dancing, Canaseraga, visited the hospital to sing, dance and perform during their annual Christmas visit.

Members of the band toured the halls of the hospital with their band directors, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Haywood, singing traditional carols while ventriloquist, Royce Rowley, performed with "Roger and Danny." Santa Claus, in the person of Killine Dolan, Wayland, distributed novelty gifts and candy to the patients.

At eight o'clock, ambulatory and wheelchair patients were transported to the cafeteria for a "Drancing Through Christmas" program presented by the students of the school of dance.

To the music of "Good King Wenselaus," Diane Davis, Lucinda Nietz, Dana Lawrence, Kelly Howe, Deborah Sutfin, Dorine Lawrence, Cheryl Muchler and Patricia Davis performed a tap dance. Robin Glover performed a ballet solo to the tune of "Christmas Morning." The Heywood troupe sang and danced to "White Christmas." The 'Skaters Waltz," was done by Susan Fallan, Trude Townsend, Janet Schryver, Marie Noel Merrill, Sally Ann Ott, Christine Tonkery, Kathleen Zone, Susan Henchen, Patricia Reynolds, Lynn and Terri Boardmen. "Mr. Dancing Santa Claus," was performed by Darlene Lacey, Tonya Becker, Wendy Brown, Sharon Smith, Kim Wagner and Paula Bidlack.

"Sleigh Ride," a jazz number, was done by Barbart White, Margaret Karns, Jo Whitman, Julie Brower, Diane Happough, Kim Cragg, Suzanne Schubmehl, and Joanne Rider. The "Jingle Bell Rock," a solo number was executed by Janet Knickerbocker and the finale "Here Comes Santa Claus," featured dancers Robin Fuller, Martha Hartwell and Lucinda McCarthy.

Nazareth Hall Inspection

Captain Frederick Ruder passes inspection on these Cadets at Nazareth Hall as they performed for their recent Fall Inspection. Detailed inspection was held by staff officers of Naval Officers Training Corps of the University of Rochester.

Utica Boasts Five-Ton Christmas Wreath

What is probably the world's largest man-made Christmas wreath was lighted last week at the Utica Club Brewery Tour Center in Utica. With a 36-foot diameter the wreath is festooned with 5,250 light bulbs, had to be lifted into place by a giant crane. In something of an understatement, Bob Schubel, the company's engineering manager, said: "We wanted to do something special in the way of Christmas decorations this year."

VFW Replaces Stolen Scout Flag

The Dutchtown Keith Miller Post No. 6595, Veterans of Foreign Wars, recently presented an American flag to Boy Scout Troop No. 212 of Holy Family Church. The flag was to replace one which had been stolen from the boys' scout room.

Hurst Backed For Judgeship

The Catholic Interracial Council of Rochester has asked Gov Nelson Rockefeller to appoint Rochester attorney Lloyd Hurst to a vacant Monroe County judgeship

In a recent letter to the governor, the Council directors urged him to consider "the fact that Monroe County and the City of Rochester have no Negroes in judicial posts."

"We feel this situation is intolerable in a community with a large and active Negro population," the letter said, "and we respectfully urge the appointment of Attorney Lloyd Hurst to fill this vacancy."
