

Contreres Sparks Carmel Win Streak

A pint-sized sharpshooter who's been hitting for 16 points a game is helping Mt. Carmel stay undefeated in the Green division of the CYO Grammar School League.

He's Jessie Contreres, 14, who scored 12 points as Mt. Carmel defeated St. Joseph's of Penfield last Sunday. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Contreres of 91 Ontario St., he's originally from San Antonio, Texas, but has been in Rochester for 11 years now. Jessie is hoping to win a scholarship at one of the Catholic high schools next fall.

Kings Bow to Madison, 62-37

The Kearney court men lost their third straight game, bowing to Madison, 62-37, last Saturday at home. The loss puts the season's mark at 1-3.

Madison's Harry Hunter dominated the game with fifteen points. The Wilson Parkers rallied to a 36-20 halftime lead and maintained it through the rest of the game.

The Kings dominated the boards but their offense could not get rolling as they connected for only 17 points in the second half. Center Dan Holland led the Kings with 13 points in a losing cause.

Late Madison Surge Fells McQuaid In Two Overtimes

By TIM BERGIN

Madison's resurgent Wilson Parkers steadily chipped away at an early McQuaid lead last Friday, caught the Knights almost at the wire, and finally won, 51-49, in two overtimes at McQuaid.

The loss to Madison was a hard one for the Knights to absorb. They had opened a startling 13-0 lead as Nick Combs and Bob Madden divided six fields and held an 18-5 advantage at the quarter. In the second period, Madison's weave offense came alive, led by Jim McGowan's four buckets, but the Knights meshed 8 of 9 free throws to carry a 32-19 edge at half.

Madison crept closer in the third quarter, 39-30, and the final session was a nightmare for the Knights. The fired-up Parkers erupted for 7 straight points before Mark Welt's long swisher from the corner gave McQuaid its only points of the period.

Madison's Jim Hunter quickly replied with a driving layup, and the score held at 41-39. Then the Knights sent 3 different men to the charity stripe with a chance to sew up the game but couldn't cash in. They still had possession with 30 seconds remaining, but a steal gave the Parkers a chance, and Henry Harris converted both ends of a one-and-one to pull Madison even for the first time, 18 seconds from the end of regulation time.

In the first overtime Hunter gave the visitors their first lead with a short bank shot but the Knights came back on Madden's one-hander with 1:05 left. Hunter canned a pair of free throws at the 43-second mark but with 20 seconds to go Welt took a slick Combs pass and popped in the equalizer. After Madison missed a free throw with 18 seconds left, Combs' 18-footer at the buzzer shattered under the rim for several delicious seconds but wouldn't drop.

In the second extra session, Hunter hit a layup for Madison, Bob Comparato answered for McQuaid, and McGowan came in for another Madison bucket for a 49-47 lead. Following turnovers on each side, Madison's Charlie Friend finally sank the winning foul shot, giving his team a 2-point buffer with 14 seconds left.

The Knights still were alive though, as Comparato notched two on a free break and Combs rebounded to give the Knights possession after a missed Madison foul. McQuaid managed three clear shots from inside the key but each spun out and Madison finally rebounded.

McQuaid's second-half lapse at the foul line was especially costly, as the Knights hit only 1 of 9. Madison went 15 for 23.

The scoring was well spread, McGowan and Hunter tallying 13 for Madison, while Madden had 13 and Welt and Combs 12 apiece for McQuaid.

McQuaid's JV squad also jumped off to a big early lead but kept most of it for a 67-50 win over Madison in the opener. Earlier in the day, the Knight freshmen dropped a 66-40 game at Mt. Carmel of Auburn.

Irish Cruise Over Lyons

Hitting 49 per cent of its shots in the first half, hot Aquinas Institute rolled up a 63-48 victory last Saturday at the RIT gymnasium and abruptly cracked a three-game losing streak at the expense of Lyons Central School.

Highlighting Aquinas' second win in five outings was Jim Brady who got out of a sick bet to bag 12 points. Bob Christian and Jerry Sussina both chipped in 11 points each.

Lyons had two double figure operatives but couldn't overcome the first quarter deficit. Jerry Lake and Roger Bernhardt tallied 17 and 10, respectively, for the Lions.

Fisher Quint Takes Two, Raises Record to 3-3

By defeating McMaster University at home on Friday, 89-69, and outscoring St. Michael's College in Toronto Saturday afternoon by the almost identical score of 89-88, the St. John Fisher College basketball team boosted its record for the season to three wins and three losses last weekend. The Cardinals will be inactive throughout the holidays, then will vie with RIT, Roberts Wesleyan, and Brockport State in the second annual Monroe County College Tournament at Brockport Jan. 5 and 6.

CYO Sets Hoop Loop For Men

With the opportunity to play on an organized basketball team all but gone, the CYO is organizing a second half Men's Basketball League to provide basketball for those men who didn't want to play when the leagues formed, or for those men who just didn't have time then.

Deadline for entries is 5 p.m. Jan. 9, 1968. An entry fee will be charged and trophies and a banquet will follow the season.

For more information call the CYO, 454-2030.

Fisher Nips McMaster Wrestlers

With freshmen Jim Reo and Jeff Kaier retaining their undefeated status, St. John Fisher College wrestlers won their first match of the season Friday, nipping a visiting McMaster University squad by a 21-20 score on the Fisher mat. The second annual Monroe County College Tournament at Brockport Jan. 5 and 6.

Captain Mike Law also scored for Fisher with a decision in the 130-pound class.
