OUR NEW YEAR WISH

FOR ALL OUR FRIENDS POP TO THE TOP IN 68

We hope you all had a most happy Christmas. With all the other preparations for the big day, you may not have gotten around to baking the traditional fruit cake. It's still not too late since this kind of cake is always a treat and keeps well. Besides, no doubt friends will be dropping in for a holiday visit and will enjoy a piece of this home-made specialty with a cup of that ever-popular Chase & Sanborn Coffee.

Mrs. John Sperrick, a member of St. Ann's Home-School Association in Palmyra, has sent us her version of this old-time favorite. She says it's easy to make and absolutely non-fail. It does require 4 bowls for preparation, but when you taste the finished product, you won't mind the little extra dish-

POP Fruit Cake

- 3 cups sugar 1 cup Blue Bonnet Margarine
- 1 tsp. vanilla 4 cups flour
- 2 tsp. cinnamon 2 tsp. nutmeg
- 2 tsp. cloves
- 1 lb. raisins 1 lb. nuts
- 1 lb. candied fruit
- 1/2 lb. green and red cherries 4 cups unsweetened apple sauce
- 2 tsp. baking soda

In a large bowl cream the sugar and Blue Bonnet Margarine Add eggs and vanilla and blend thoroughly. In a medium-sized bowl mix 3 cups of the flour with the spices and set aside. Mix the remaining cup of flour with the fruits and nuts. In the third medium-sized bowl, add soda to the applesauce. Blend the combined flour and spices with the first creamed mixture. Add the applesauce and finally the floured fruits and nuts. Thoroughly blend the whole mixture. Bake 1½ hours at 300 F.

For those of you with children, next Saturday, the Feast of the Epiphany or the coming of the Three Kings, is another day for special celebration. The ceremony of placing the figures of the kings near your Christmas crib with appropriate prayers

For each of you the new year promises good things—maybe a car, a promotion, new furniture--certainly clothes.

But think of what the new year promises 600 million children like these and their families. Nothing to hope for . . . nothing to look forward to...

WHY? Because they cannot find work, food, medicine.

WHERE? In the "other" two-thirds of the world.

WHAT CAN YOU DO? Your happiness will increase as you help missionaries share your blessings with these who have nothing. The world needs more love from you than it is getting. Resolve today to send a monthly gift to aid the poor of the world
