Fisher Dorm Dedicated

Bishop James E. Kearney, chancellor of St. John Fisher College, will dedicate Murray Hall, a new 54-man residence at 4:30 this afternoon (Jan. 12)

Ceremonies will consist of a Mass in the campus chapel offered, by Bishop Kearney; blessing of the new building, and a reception for relatives of the late Dr. John A. Murray, the Fisher Board of Regents, faculty, and guests.

Dr. Murray, a native Rochesterian, was an assistant professor of history at the college for sever al years. The building named for him will be dedicated on the ninth anniversary of his death.

Murray Hall is the first of a four-unit student housing complex at Fisher designed to provide a "family" atmosphere not possible in larger dormitories. The two-man rooms cluster around a central lounge area on the upper two stories of the three level brick structure. Construction cost was $420,000.
