

OLPH Ties For First Before Record Crowd

1,100 in the C.Y.O. Auditorium saw Our Lady of Perpetual Help upset Christ the King 40 to 30 last Sunday in grammar school action. Our Lady Perpetual Help's win created a three-way tie in the Scarlet Division as Our Lady of Lourdes and St. Bridget's won easily over the Corpus Christi and St. Salome teams, respectively. Both St. Jerome's and St. Thomas Apostle teams remain undefeated in the Green Division.

In high school action St. Monica's pulled the upset of the year by defeating Holy Rosary 54 to 48 and then were defeated Sunday by Holy Ghost 63 to 58. Other surprises saw St. John's of Rochester hand Blessed Sacrament their second consecutive loss by a score 60 to 58. St. John's of Greece upset Holy Cross 56 to 55.

Aquinas Guard Takes A First

Aquinas Institute's crack Color Guard added one more first place trophy to its showcase last week when it captured the 1968 International Flag Pageant Saturday in Clarence, N.Y.

Aquinas led four other local guards in securing the top five places in the contest, held at the Clarence Central Senior High School. The contest annually attracts the top guards in Western New York and Ontario.

The Webster Highlanders took second place and the Waves of Greece won third place. Both received trophies. Bishop Kearney and the Emerald Cadets scored fourth and fifth respectively.

In addition to the first place trophy, Aquinas also received a flag from Erie County. By virtue of its win, Aquinas was declared Erie County Color Guard champions.

On Feb. 10, Aquinas will travel to Hamilton, N.Y. to compete against the top guards in the state.

Color Guard captain is James Allen of St. James parish. Father John Whitley, C.S.B., instructs the group.

The third quarter, with both teams pressing, produced a rash of turnovers, but 8 more points by Greene helped the Redjackets to a 48-45 margin going into the final period. The last 8 minutes were a scramble all the way as Monroe fired in 27 points to the Knights' 21.

Greene, whose 24 points included 10 of 13 field attempts and 4 of 5 from the line, was the biggest gun in Monroe's arsenal. For McQuaid, Nick Corns bucketed 17, Mark Weid 14, and Brad Smith 10.

On the J.V. scene, things continued bright, as the Knights rang up a 65-48 triumph over Monroe for a 12-1 season mark.

Monroe Outguns Knights

McQuaid's basketballers shifted from their usual controlled offense to a run-and-shoot style last Friday but couldn't keep pace as Monroe's power-packed Redjackets prevailed, 85-67, at McQuaid.

The setback lowered the Knights' record to 6-6 while Monroe is 11-2 for the season.

Monroe, exerting constant full-court pressure and dominating the backboards, erupted midway through the opening quarter for 12 straight points and led 23-12 after 8 minutes.

By halftime, sparked by Rufus Greene's shooting, their advantage was 39-27.

The momentum continued into Saturday's game and carried Kearney an easy 53-39 win over Mount Carmel.

The story of the contest was once again Fitzpatrick and Howland; this time with 21 and 18 points respectively. But it was not all offense; Kearney controlled the boards and held the Carmel Crusaders to one shot attempt.

Earlier in the season Aquinas squeaked by the Indians, 51-49. Game time is set for 8:15 p.m. with a jayvee preliminary scheduled to begin at 7 p.m.

In the spotlight for Aquinas will be high-scoring seniors Jim Brady and Dan Hogan.

Coach Jerry McGuire's charges, limping along with a 4 and 7 season record, may show new strength during the remaining games of the current campaign. Hustle, defense and improved shooting has resulted from a few key changes in the Irish lineup.
