

Aquinas Parents To Hear World-Famous Speaker

One of the nation's top public speakers who has fascinated audiences the world over will address the Aquinas parents' organization, APACE, on Tuesday, Feb. 20, in the Aquinas Auditorium at 8 p.m.

Ray Monsalvatge of Dayton, Ohio, well known as a writer, speaker, TV and radio personality, has appeared extensively throughout the United States, Canada, Latin America and Europe. His topic for the evening will be, "Uncover Your Hidden Talents."

Last summer, when Father Leon G. Hart, C.S.B., Aquinas principal, asked Monsalvatge to address the parents' group in October, the noted speaker asked, "October of what year?"

Monsalvatge gives over 2000 talks per year and is booked up for three years in advance.

The dynamic Monsalvatge is one of the country's most sought-after speakers. According to Father Hart, an enterprising, inspirational and a true professional.

Born in Savannah, Georgia, his first appearances were for

Aquinas To Sell Its Stadium

Aquinas Stadium will be sold to finance a new athletic plant if and when such a facility is added to the Basilian school, the principal, Father Leon G. Hart said this week.

The stadium, on 20 acres at Ridgeway and Mt. Read, is a relic of the bygone "great" days of school football. The property should bring in a million dollars, an advisory committee believes.

"Property in the area is appreciating rather rapidly, so it appears this estimate may be correct," Father Hart commented.

He said the committee specified that the money should be used to expand physical education facilities at the Dewey Ave. school and provide a program in line with State Educa-

Newman Club Notes Tides of Renewal

The National Newman Apostolate is out to contact 1.1 million Catholic students in secular colleges this year.

Washington headquarters spoke of "outward bound tides of renewal" in a statement issued to mark Cardinal Newman's birthday, Feb. 21.

The organization named for the celebrated English churchman (1801-1890) took root 75 years ago at the University of Pennsylvania and has spread to 1,200 campuses.

The Newman Club of Malta New York - (NC) - Clement J. Wagner of Ridgeway N.Y., publisher of several Catholic periodicals, was invested as a Knight of Malta in St. Patrick's cathedral here. Wagner heads a firm which publishes the Catholic Educator and the Homiletic and Pastoral Review, among other periodicals and books.

A FOUR DEC.
H. O'Connor w

Thomas H. O'Connor, 44-year veteran of Rochester's Catholic press, is retiring from the Courier-Journal.

Mr. O'Connor, 74, has been with the Courier since 1924. Previous to that, he worked eight years on the Rochester edition of the Catholic Echo, which originated in Buffalo.

"When I joined the Echo in 1924, I thought it would be just a year," he smiled recently this week. His venture into the Catholic press is a story that covered more than four decades.

Handicapped by falling eyesight in recent years, Mr. O'Connor continued to come in a few hours each day. For the past two years, he had managed to handle the obituaries, the "Years Ago" and "Forty Hours" pieces and on occasion, pol-

Bishop Is Honored by Synagogue

New York - (NC) - Bishop Fulton J. Sheen of Rochester, N.Y., and Msgr. Timothy Flynn, pastor of Holy Family Church here, were honored a New York synagogue for their efforts on behalf of brotherhood and ecumenism.

Bishop Sheen received brotherhood award from Mother of the Holy Family Synagogue here. The award, an illuminated parchment scroll encased in a leather binding, opened by these words from Psalm 118:

"Behold, how good and pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity."

Dr. Edward Jacobs, president of the Metropolitan Council of the National Federation of Temple Brotherhoods, conferred the award on Bishop Sheen, who hailed recent advances in ecumenicity with Christianity, and commented the growing rapprochement between Jews and Christians.

Msgr. Flynn, who is also rector of the Catholic Center for the United Nations, presented a bronze figure of Jesus. The figure will be placed in the Pope John XXIII Library at Holy Family Church.
