Perfect Gift for an Irish Friend or Yourself

TODAY there are more than thirty million Americans with Irish blood in their veins. Proud, too, of every drop of it! They particularly take pleasure in keeping alive and popularizing the witty sayings and writings of those of their blood, especially of those intensely Irish Irishmen such as Swift, Sheridan, Shaw, Gogarty, Wilde, Dunne, Breslin, O'Rourke, McNulty, MacDonagh, Wibberley, O'Connor, Ervine, O'Faolain, Doyle, Callaghan and Sullivan, all of whom with others are included in this generous volume—THE HOME BOOK OF IRISH HUMOR. Here they have caught the ready wit, the quick retort, the hundred ingratiating faults, the thousand redeeming weaknesses, the sometimes bitter and usually ironic observations of the Irish which have given the race its reputation for humor and good fellowship.

The contents of THE HOME BOOK OF IRISH HUMOR are divided into twelve sections: Pubs, Publicans and Patrons; Irish Bulls and Pure Potent; Born Politicos; The Great Georgians; The Landed Gentry; Tales from the Irish Countryside; The Renaissance; For the Bend in the Road; North of the Border and Down Under; Irish Ballads, Songs and Sagas; Irish Proverbs; and Wakes and Wags.

Throughout the editor, John McCarthy, formerly Executive Editor of Catholic Digest, has contributed a lively series of quips and jests about the Irish, humble and great.

THE HOME BOOK OF IRISH HUMOR, published by Dodd, Mead & Company, is the perfect gift for an Irish friend or yourself.
