Knights Edge East; End with 10-8 Mark

By TIM BERGIN

McQuaid's fast-finishing Knights surprised a strong East quint last week as senior forward Kevin Dwyer's 25 points paced a 57-33 triumph over the Orientals.

The contest concluded McQuaid's regular schedule with a winning 10-8 record. The Knights raced off to a flying start. Bob Madden hit his first three shots, Dwyer strung together two buckets and a pair of fouls, and McQuaid was up, 14-10, at the whistle.

Early in the second period Dwyer swished three long jumpers and Madden and Brad Smith added field goals to increase the McQuaid margin to 23-12. But fine outside shooting by Sam Gray enabled East to climb to within 25-20 at the half.

Dwyer dunked 3 more baskets in the third period, but East fought back for a brief 32-31 lead. Eight points in a row by McQuaid helped it to a 40-38 lead at the quarter but a quick spurt put East on top again, 43-42. Dwyer's bank shot with 5:33 remaining pulled the Knights ahead to stay, but it took four foul shots — 2 by Smith and 2 by Combs — to make the lead hold up.

Combs contributed 16 points to the winning effort, while Madden and Smith each had 9. For East, Gray's 22 points led the way.

At other levels, the McQuaid J.V.'s were 16-2, while the Knight frosh closed out with 2 victories to wind up with a 5-10 record.

Bishops To Explore

Closer Rapport with YWCA

Washington — (NC) — The Bishops of the United States have been advised that there is no apparent reason why they cannot, individually, "explore and implement better relations" with the YWCAs in their respective areas.

Archbishop John F. Dearden of Detroit, president of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops, has told the bishops that the Administrative Committee of the NCCB approved at its February meeting the work of the Bishops' Committee on Relations with the YWCA/YWCA.

The Bishops' Committee, headed by Archbishop Philip M. Hannan of New Orleans, and its representatives, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harold Schachern of Detroit, first vice-president of the National Council of Catholic Women, "discussed at length with officers and representatives of the national board of the YWCA of the U.S.A." the following questions: "Is the YWCA a church? Is it a religion? Is it Protestant? Does it proselytize? Does it support Protestant mission activities?"

In a letter transmitting documentation provided by the YWCA, Archbishop Dearden told the U.S. bishops that, in the light of the answers given, "there appears to be no objection to the local Ordinary consulting with the YWCA in the area, in an effort to explore and implement better relations between Catholics and the local organizations of the YWCA."

The 1967 convention of the YWCA adopted a position statement entitled "The YWCA — A Christian Movement Open to the World." Its position included:

"The YWCA is a world-wide Christian movement open to all women and girls in communities with widespread religious pluralism and many persons of no religious faith."

"The YWCA does not assume the functions of the church — i.e., ministry of the word, the sacraments, and doctrine."

CYO Cage Tourney

Thirty-two of the best parish basketball teams in the diocese will square off this weekend as the CYO cage tournament opens. Four division champs will be crowned in action starting tonight (March 10) and ending in the championship games, set for McQuaid High, and the consolation matches to be played in the CYO auditorium.

Rochester's top entries are Our Lady of Mercy, which took the high school CYO crown, and St. Thomas the Apostle, which walked off with the grammar school title.

Top honors in NCOMP's 11th went to "Bonnie and Clyde" (far right). The Ca

New York — "Bonnie and Clyde," 1967's most controversial movie, has been chosen by the National Catholic Office for Motion Pictures as the year's "best film for mature audiences."

The selection highlighted NCOMP's third annual film awards, in which NCOMP also cited "The Whisperers" — a film drama about loneliness in old age — as the "best film of educational value," and "Elvira Madigan," a tragic love story.
