

Bishop Sheen Narrates New Film For Catechetical Schools Use

A film prepared by Bishop Sheen and Father Leonard A. Kelly for distribution among religious educators will be shown at 8 p.m. April 25 at Cardinal Mooney High School.

The school trains 1,500 children a year on an annual budget of less than $15,000, the letter says. The Mission Helpers of the Sacred Heart supervise instruction.

The seven churches of Greece will sponsor the Mooney showing, as part of their Catholic Information Series.

Irondequoit to Vote On Proposed Center

A vote is scheduled tomorrow night on the proposed $1.5 million community center for the Town of Irondequoit.

If approved, the center will be on the northwest corner of the Town Hall. It will include a gym with a stage, an indoor-outdoor swimming pool, indoor ice skating rink, snack bar, canteen, meeting and activity rooms.

Mother Guillemin Dies In France

Mother Suzanne Guillemin, superior of the Daughters of Charity, died March 28 in Paris, following surgery. She was 82 years old.

Mother Guillemin was completing a six-year term as head of the largest religious community in the world. The order, with 44,000 sisters, is represented in nearly every country.

The Daughters of Charity operate St. Mary's Hospital here.

Mother Guillemin was an official auditor at the Second Vatican Council. More recently, she had served as a counselor for the Sacred Congregation of Religious.

Missions Supplied

Over 200 pounds of medical supplies and clothing have been sent to the Catholic Medical Board for shipment to Africa by the "Hands of Mary" group from Holcomb, N.Y.

Under the direction of Mrs. Eldora Scott, the supplies were rounded up from the Syracuse area.

Texas Auxiliary Named

Washington—(NC)—Pope Paul VI has named Msgr. John J. Cassata, vicar general of the diocese of Galveston-Houston, to be auxiliary to Bishop Thomas K. Gorman of Dallas-Fort Worth.

YMCA Permission

Philadelphia—(NC)—Permission for Catholics to join the YMCA and YWCA and to serve as board members or staff officials of the two agencies was announced here by Auxiliary Bishop John J. Graham of Philadelphia, chairman of the Cardinal's Commission on Human Relations.
