

Youth Supplies New Pages for Diocesan History

Bjorne G. Nilsen receives congratulations from Bishop Sheen and Father Charles Lavery, after getting his diploma and St. John Fisher Award for excellence in math and natural sciences. Nilsen, an invalid since three years old, commuted daily from Scottsville. He made the Dean's List every semester in his four years and will go on to Doctoral work in science at the U. of R.

The 12 newly ordained priests pose with Bishop Sheen following ceremonies last Saturday. From the left: Father Charles Latus, Father Robert Magin, Father James Schwartz, Father Cyril Karlowicz, O.F.M. Cap., Father Kevin Murphy, Father James Kelleher, Bishop Sheen, Father Eugene Lower, Father David Kunz, Father Robert Beligotti, Father Richard Beligotti, Father William Gall, Father Francis Argentino, O.F.M. Cap.

Monsignor Joseph L. Hogan, rector of Becket Hall, is pictured with three seminarian-grads who took summa cum laude honors at St. John Fisher: from left—Daniel K. Finn, Holy Trinity parish, Webster; David G. Wolf, Holy Rosary, who was top scholar in the entire class of 250; and Michael J. Mahler, St. James, Rochester. Missing Becket honor-men were Richard E. Ipi, Sts. Peter and Paul, Elmira, and Kenneth R. Jones, St. James, who also were summa cum laude.

Ambassador Sol Linowitz, Organization of American States, receives the hood of an honorary Doctor of Laws from St. John Fisher College. Former Rochester attorney and now U.S. representative to Latin American nations, Linowitz gave the graduation address at Fisher's 14th commencement.

The diocese saw the beginning of hopeful and talented careers last weekend as Nazareth, St. John Fisher and St. Bernard's Seminary held commencement ceremonies for 450 college graduates and ten new priests. These pictures of ordination and graduations reflect the Church's pride in these institutions and her expectations of these young men and women.

Two Nazareth graduates listen to commencement speaker, John Roche.

Significant moments in the ordination ceremony at Sacred Heart Cathedral on June 2: Bishop Sheen (above) presses the chalice to the just-ordained fingers of Father James Kelleher and confers on him the authority to offer the Sacrifice of the Mass. The new priest's fingers are bound with linen cloth during this part of the ritual. . . . The Bishop's imposition of hands (right) on the head of Father James Schwartz is the silent, sacred ceremony which confers the dignity and powers of the priesthood.

A sea of mortar boards and the speakers platform provide some shade on the sunny East Avenue campus at Nazareth's commencement.

The Pop Trip Bogo

Papal C

Vatican City — (RNS) can be putting great in August's conference of American bishops who mediate after the World Congress in Bogota, Col

Not only will the conf augurated by Pope Pau but it will bring together men already alert to the now sweeping the Ch hemisphere and ready thing about it.

Detailed preparations vanced through constant between the Bishop's (CELAAM) and the P mission for Latin Ame customs will last for weeks and if the achi expected, are notable, a be set for regional bish elsewhere in the world.

The Pope, it is expect his intervention on the general outline, leaving wide latitude for opinio topic is the "Applicatio can-Council to the Situs America," there will be of questions — the styl to late, the formation o the relations of the C teeming unlettered mill social question in gene where the disparity i and poor is so pronoun

"The Pope," said one ly connected with the work, "may well take no social changes convuls continent and ask, 'Quo America?'"

The Colombia meetin ond of its kind. In 195 XII, in a providential moned a more modest for meeting in Rio de , was attended by only 10 events turned out, it before its time. The V confident that the gro at this meeting will Bogota conference, the a new phase in the life ole Church.