Keith Andes, who has the dual starring roles of Cervantes and Don Quixote in the prize winning musical "Man of La Mancha" which opens at the Auditorium Theatre on Monday evening, Sept. 2 through Saturday Sept. 7.

Keith Andes to Star In 'Man of La Mancha'

Don Quixote lives again. And so does Cervantes, his creator. They are both wrapped up in the person of Keith Andes in that vastly original and prize-winning musical, "Man of La Mancha" by Dale Wasserman which opens a one-week engagement at Rochester's Auditorium Theatre on Monday, Sept. 2. Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

As for its plea, it's the most elegant one, and all but lost in this pragmatic, realistic world: Let us cherish our dreamers and our idealists.

The musical ranges from the squalor of the prison to the sparkle of the Knight of the Mirrors blinding the Don back to reality.

There is a rich vital score by Mitch Leigh with lyrics by Joe Dario and includes such popular song numbers as "I, Don Quixote," "Man of La Mancha," "Dulcinea," "Aldonza," "What Does He Want of Me," "It's All the Same," and of course, "The Impossible Dream (The Quest)," a melody that is simple in design, yet soaring in its effect.

WHO PHOTOS

These pictures were taken only 10 months apart. What made this unbelievable difference? $50 worth of food and care sent by someone who cared. Millions of such children in Mission lands are starving today! Do you care? Dear Missionary: Use this $50 to make the same change in another child. I know that every bit helps.

As I See It

Walter Cronkite

By PAT COSTA

With one convention behind us and another just ahead of us America is on its way to becoming super-saturated with the particular style of politics as practiced at these events.

For most of us one would imagine, there is one element that keeps the conventions from being completely unpalatable and that is the superstar of these shows.

And that star is not the presidential candidate who is finally chosen, but rather the anchorman of each network who often under extreme duress lifts the proceedings out of the realm of banalities into some semblance of sanity.

While there are undoubtedly those viewers who like to twist the channel selector back and forth during the conventions most of us probably hit upon a favorite news-
