

AROUND THE WORLD

Iran Quake Scene

Rescue workers search what was once a home in northeastern Iran in hope of finding some persons alive beneath the rubble. Mass destruction was caused by Iran's worst series of earthquakes, and estimates of casualties have run as high as 30,000. Scene here is in the town of Kakhk, one of the communities hardest hit by the quakes. All survivors were threatened by starvation, drought, cold and spreading pestilence caused by unburied bodies. Lack of Transport Stalls Relief

Berlin — (RNS) — German Protestants have collected $2 million for Biafran relief, but have no adequate means of getting food and medicine into the West Africa war zone.

Dr. Peter Henke, assistant to Bishop Kurt Scharf of the Evangelical Church of Berlin-Brandenburg, told RNS that planes, pilots, navigators and ground crews are desperately needed to get the supplies to starving Biafrans.

The planes must be capable of short take-off and landing, Dr. Henke added, and can only be obtained in the United States and Canada since they are not manufactured in Germany, and Great Britain will not sell them.

To get flight personnel "we are prepared to pay and pay well for the risk is considerable," Dr. Henke declared.

Mercy Flight Interfaith Affair

Berlin — (RNS) — An airplane chartered jointly by the relief agency of The Evangelical Church in Germany and German Caritas, Roman Catholic relief agency, has flown relief supplies to victims of the series of earthquakes in Iran.

The supplies include tents, blankets and clothing.

Prison Cell Proclaimed 'Holy'

Akko, Israel — (RNS) — The Israeli government has proclaimed the prison cell of Baha 'u' llah, prophet-founder of the Baha'i Faith, a "holy place," Dr. Zerah Wahrhaftig, the country's minister of religions said here.

Dr. Wahrhaftig made the announcement as some 2,000 Baha'is from many countries gathered near here to commemorate the 100th anniversary of Baha 'u' llah's journey to the Holy Land, where he died in jail, a Turkish prisoner.

French Diocese To Abandon Parish System

Paris — (NC) — The French diocese of Beauvais will abandon the age-old parish system starting Sept. 15 under pastoral reforms approved by Bishop Stephane Desmazieres.

The deaneries of the diocese will be replaced by "missionary sectors" grouped into "pastoral zones." These sectors have been arranged geographically by taking into account changes in the character of the population and population movements. In the diocese of Beauvais, as elsewhere, people are leaving the countryside to gather in urban clusters.

The order of the bishop setting up the missionary sectors said that these sectors "are characterized by the way of life and the relationships of their inhabitants; they will permit a more effective evangelization through the concerted action of priests, Religious and the laity."

In the new system, a priest will be assigned to a "pastoral team in a missionary sector" and not to a parish. There will be from two to five pastoral teams in each missionary sector.

In the document, Bishop Desmazieres stated: "The change from deanery to missionary sector is not merely a change of vocabulary; it demands a change of mentality and a new look at things; the accent is not on 'sector' but on 'missionary.' Everything in the activities of the priest, even to the choice of places of worship, must be determined by this missionary action."

Enrollment Drops In San Antonio

San Antonio — (RNS) — When Catholic schools reopen in San Antonio, 27,900 children are expected to answer the bell—a drop of some 2,300 from the previous year's figure. The enrollment for last year, 30,278, was, in turn, approximately 3,200 below the 1966-67 figure.

Two high schools and seven elementary schools have closed their doors permanently in the diocese and only one new school is opening. The new school, on the grounds of the motherhouse of the Benedictine Sisters in Boerne, about 30 miles northwest of San Antonio, is a girls' school and will accept Catholics only.

Most Catholics Oppose Encyclical, Poll Says

Princeton, N.J. — (RNS) — More than half of the Catholics contacted in a Gallup poll opposed the ruling on birth control presented by Pope Paul VI in his recent encyclical, the American Institute of Public Opinion reported here.

After finding that an unusually high number of Catholics (93 per cent) and Protestants (86 per cent) have "heard or read" about the papal letter, the Gallup organization asked this question: "Do you favor or oppose his position on this matter?"

Among Catholics, 54 per cent were opposed to the Pope's position, 28 per cent favored it, and 18 per cent gave no opinion.

To the question, "Do you think it is possible to practice artificial methods of birth control and still be a good Catholic or not?" 65 per cent of the Catholics, responding answered yes, 25 per cent no, and 10 per cent had no opinion.

Archbishop Gannon Dies at 91

Erie, Pa. — (RNS) — Archbishop John Mark Gannon died here at the age of 91. He had been dean of the American Catholic hierarchy at the time of his retirement in 1966.

Archbishop Gannon was known as a prelate strongly devoted to Catholic education, to ecumenism and to civil rights.

The archbishop was born in Erie on June 12, 1877, and was ordained to the priesthood in 1901 after completing his studies at St. Bonaventure College and the Catholic University of America.

He also was graduated from the University of Munich and the Apollinaris College in Rome, and held doctorates in both theology and canon law.

After having served in various pastoral assignments in the Diocese of Erie, he was consecrated its auxiliary bishop in 1918 and became the first native bishop of the diocese in 1920.

He resigned in 1966 following a request by Pope Paul that all bishops over 75 tender their resignations.
