A Vintage

Fall days are here, golden and crisp. There's something about a sunny day with a bit of a nip in the air that inspires you to bake a cake. Besides, what better way could there be to procrastinate another day in fall house-cleaning the bedroom closet!

We've never known a family that wouldn't rather have homemade cake than clean closets. And making a cake "from scratch" is a good deal more soul-satisfying for you than closet cleaning any day, especially when the cake is a very special one, like Grape Cake. It's a classic "creaming method" cake that's feathery-light and tender.

A perfect complement to the cake's delicate texture is its unusual filling and frosting, which give your velvety cake a taste as rich as a fall fruit stand. Based on bottled grape juice, a package of pudding and pie filling, and flaked coconut, the filling can be quickly cooked up while the cake merrily rises in the oven; then the filling chills while the cake is cooling. The pastel frosting is a cooked one of the "four minute" type, and echoes the grape flavor of the filling.
