

BRADFORD BACHRACH

My fellow Americans,

My wife and I are the parents of two daughters. We share with all our fellow Americans--but especially with parents and grandparents--their deep concern about the fear that so many Americans now have in regard to the lives of their children, who are our priceless heritage. I pledge that my administration will take immediate steps to:

1. Restore law and order--reduce the fear that is in the hearts of so many parents every time their children leave their homes.

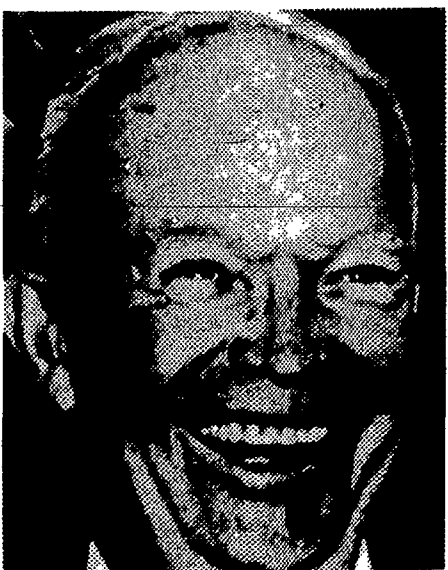

2. Initiate an immediate program--to protect our young boys and girls from the twisted minds trying to seduce them with pornographic literature.

3. Launch effective programs--to protect our young boys and girls from the criminals selling drugs.

You can assist in accomplishing the above by voting for me on Tuesday, November 5, 1968.

Sincerely yours,

Richard M. Nixon
