Clothing Drive

These Malaysian women are learning to restyle and tailor clothes donated by Americans to the annual Thanksgiving Clothing Collection. Such projects give people both hope for a better future, and the dignity of feeling that they can take care of themselves, and be of some use to the world. In cooperatives set up by Catholic Relief Services, overseas aid agency of American Catholics, men and women are discovering such dignity. Do your part by contributing serviceable clothing and bedding during the 1968 Thanksgiving Clothing Collection for the Needy Overseas, during the week of November 10. Your gifts will be distributed to the needy of all races and religions in 60 countries.
