Family Spirituality

Our concern for family life extend far beyond the public pastoral letters. We pledge to cooperate in multiplying ways means toward the renewal of family and the enhancing of prestige. Specifically, we shall create our encouragement in the process and the nation of programs undertaken by apostolic groups. Objective is the natural and strengthening of the Christian.

Because of the primacy spiritual in all that makes new, we give top priority to ever may produce a sound "spiritually". Family prayer, ab that which derives its content spirit from the liturgy, and other vations, particularly the family reading of the Scri family attendance at Mass a ception of Communion; fam treats, days of recollection and special devotions; the observ occasions of spiritual significance members of the household—a will increase the awareness family that it is the "Chau miniature".

For these reasons, we welcome of those theologians who preparing a modern and valid theology of marriage. We gratefully the spiritual emphasis many family-life programs, and local, whose primary concern has been the theological the Christian family.

To prepare future spouse adequately we recommend a team-efforts in their behalf the part of pastors of souls and

"... the family image is reproduced is the community realized, the place future of the person is a learning experience ..."

ried counselors, including married couples. Such projects give engaged couples the human wisdom and of spirituality in the planning of home, the founding of a family education of children, and makes for fidelity and hopes lives together.

We endorse the establishment of diocesan family life centers throughout the country so that couples, physicians, psychologists and priests may cooperate in implementing responsibility in accordance with the principles enunciated in Humanae

The responsibility of our Life Division to provide informational tools and guidance face of the mounting problem family life will make it an insource of service to diocesan programs. We also hope to establish centers of education in life under the auspices of local schools or doctors guilds with collegiate or adult education programs, and the chaplains note the Holy Father's tribute promising apostolate which together married couples who to communicate their experience other married couples and come apostles of fidelity to the law and guides to fulfillment

Education of Children In Sexuality

In accord with the Decree of the Council II we affirm the necessity of wisely planned education of children in human sexuality adapted to the maturity and ground of our young people under a grave obligation, arising from the new currents of modern culture and conditions, to assist the family in its efforts to provide such training. The obligation can be met either by the provision of such education in the diocesan school curriculum or by the inauguration of educational programs under diocesan auspices, including the Fraternity of Christian I

Parents are those primarily responsible for imparting to their children an awareness of the sacredness of sexuality; this will only be best accomplished when parents discharge this duty in consultation and shared responsibility. The necessity for greater communication and cooperation between parents and teachers is highlighted in this problem; the
