Gifts Provided For Migrants

Pupils at three parish schools and Cardinal Mooney High rounded up Christmas presents last week for 40 rural families served by the Wayne County Community Action Center in Sodas.

Food and clothing, toys and school supplies were provided at the request of Father Sebastian Falcone of St. Bernard's Seminary, who has been helping out in the area for more than a year.

Grammar schools involved were Annunciation and St. John the Evangelist in the city, and St. Helen's, Gates.

Sports

McQuaid Tips Irish, Loses Non-Leaguer

The Combs brother combination provided a late score to give McQuaid High a 51-49 basketball victory over arch-rival Aquinas Institute last Friday but the Knights were beaten, 78-67, by Monroe High the next night.

Nick Combs took an assist from brother Tom to score in the game's winning seconds against Aquinas.

The score had been tied at 45 with three minutes to play.
