23 Catholic Gridders To Receive Honors

Twenty-three football players from Catholic high schools in the Rochester area will be honored at the 19th annual All-Catholic High Awards Dinner at the Shakespear Restaurant, Xerox Square.

Charles T. Maloy, former Aquinas Institute and Holy Cross College grid star, will present the awards. Principal speaker will be State Sen. Thomas Laverné. State Supreme Court Justice Emmett Schnepf will be toastmaster.

Sponsoring the dinner is Muscaravan 28. Order of the Alhambra. Phil Randazzo is chairman.

Knights Win Pair, Face Mooney, East

By DOUG MILLER

McQuaid Jesuit High School took its third and fourth straight victories last weekend with a hard-fought 42-42 verdict over Kearney and a 42-41 squeaker over Irondequoit.

The win over Kearney kept alive McQuaid's hopes of halting Cardinal Mooney's three-year reign atop the Catholic League. The two contenders meet tonight at Mooney with the Knights needing a victory to gain a first-place tie with the Cards. Tomorrow night McQuaid will be at home against East, the only club that has beaten Mooney this season.

Against BK, McQuaid led most of the way, taking a 14-7 lead at the end of the first quarter behind the playmaking of Mike Ryan. Some hot shooting by Rich Yaeger closed it to 24-23 at halftime, and the Kings opened the second half with a go-ahead bucket before the hot hand of Bob Madden gave McQuaid its largest lead at 37-27.

Tom Combs led McQuaid with 15 points, with Madden and Nick Combs adding 14 each. Yaeger had 18 points for the Kings.

The hot shooting of senior John Connolly had McQuaid up 10-6, after one period against Irondequoit, with 8 of the points Connolly's. After Irondequoit tied it at 17-all with 6 straight points, Connolly's long one-hander sent the Knights into the locker room with a 19-17 edge.

Bishop Kearney 2nd In Relay Carnival

Led by record-breaking performances in the 8-lap relay and the hurdles, the Bishop Kearney indoor track team ran to a second place finish in the second annual Rochester Relay Carnival. The Kings scored 36 points.

The meet was won by Christian Brothers Academy of Syracuse with 52 points. Webster finished with 12, McQuaid 5, Monroe 4, and West 2.

The 8-lap relay team of John McKenna, Joe DePasquale, Darrell Youngman, and George Keegan finished first as did Jim Erbeling in the hurdles.

The relay team broke the old meet and school record, and Erbeling tied the old meet record.

Second places were scored by the 8-lap relay team of Ed Mulr, Joe Kirby, Jim Erbeling, and Dan Habza; and the 16-lap relay team of Jeff Murphy, Rick Eichner, Joe Eichner, and Mike D'Errico.

The next meet is the Rochester individual championships at the U. of R. fieldhouse. Teams from the Rochester, Buffalo and Syracuse will be competing at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

Aquinas Edged by Mooney 5

By WHIT JOHNSON

Cardinal Mooney's basketball team staged a second-half comeback to edge an inspired Aquinas Institute quintet, 40-36, last Friday at the R.I.T. gymnasium.

The Ed Nietopski-coached Cardinals kept their Catholic League record unblemished and upped their season record to 15 wins against a single loss.

Aquinas, which has no league victories, dropped to 5-11 on the season.

Aquinas jumped to a quick lead on the outside shooting of Gerry Sussina who converted five field goals in the first period. Aquinas led 14-11 at the first stop. Early in the second period Sussina collided with a Mooney player and sat the rest

Aquinas Stickers Whip Monroe, 13-4

Aquinas Institute's hockey team blistered the nets for a convincing 13-4 victory over Monroe High in the Monroe County High School League last Saturday at R.I.T.

Mike Skivington of Aquinas came up with the hat trick for the second week in a row for three goals and five assists to win the individual scoring championship in the league. Skivington ended the season with 32 points, 18 goals and 14 assists. Second place went to Brighton's Ted Castle with 30 points.

Unbeaten champion Irondequoit defeated McQuaid, 6-1, and Brighton edged Fairport, 5-4.
