MRS. JOHNSTON SAYS

"In my opinion, there is nothing so radiantly beautiful as human hair, woman's crowning glory... nothing so truly acceptable in the modern world of wig as those fashioned of human hair." WIGS of human hair have the human-like qualities: natural sheen, life-like beauty... they are so easy to care for, so lovely to wear, so thrilling to possess... WIGS of human hair can be worn in the heat and the bright of day. You can work with them when they're damp.

WIGS of human hair can be compared to a fine jewel... a real masterpiece created by nature. WHERE BUT DEONE'S? WIGS of human hair wigs—modestly priced from $24.95 to $69.95 for the shimmering hand-mades? Or perhaps madame would prefer a stretch wig at $49.95.

FALLS in all colors, long, silken and very much for real; cascades of curls to beguile and bewitch, wiggles, luscious little blobs of beauty to pin on, to comb in... all so lovely, and all so very, very real.

DON'T FRET that pretty little head, you of the young and swinging generation... For you these falls and hairpieces mean instant glamour, matching color—and on that day you can't do much with your own hair, the fall or wiglet comes on strong with sophistication.

WHERE IS DEONE'S?
In the beautiful Grace Towne Mall, west entrance. Follow your nose as you step into the vestibule. The pleasant scent of perfumes will guide you to DEONE'S. Remember your Marine Midland charge. See you this week? 227-1360.

BIRTHDAY BELLE

Mrs. Louise Gaffney, 21 Evangeline St., a member of St. Monica's Church celebrated her birthday, Wednesday, March 5. She graduated from Cathedral High School in 1911, and I'll just whisper her age (73) because she seems much younger! Mrs. Gaffney is a bookkeeper at Pinnacle Paint Inc., 182 Monroe Ave., where she has worked for 16 years. She has a daughter living in Ohio, and one in Brighton, Mrs. Carl Beisheim, and 8 grandchildren. Many Happy Returns!

DRAPERY DRY CLEANING

Thurston Cleaners has simplified the dry cleaning of draperies and cut the cost while giving homemakers a service they like. About 2 hours is all it takes for cleaning and pleating with their drapery-fold method. "In most cases," says David Thurston, "pressing is unnecessary in today's fabrics." This is not a do-it-yourself, but a full service dry cleaning that costs about 1/4 of what you'd expect. THURSTON CLEANERS, 1023 Norton St. (end of North St.) 467-1241.

KREY'S

Old-Fashioned Southern Style Sausage

Dear Krey customers:

I don't know about you, but pork sausage has always been a breakfast favorite of mine, and so I was delighted, a few years back, to come across the best-tasting sausage I'd ever had. It was on a trip down south, and this sausage was southern-style all the way. It was spicy and peppery, with lots of zip. It took some doing, but I managed to get the recipe, which I brought back to the cooks at our Krey Kitchens. I can't let you in on all the secrets, but the secret is on freshly-crushed red peppers, sage, other exotic spices, and more lean meat than you're used to getting in sausage. We call it Krey Southern Brand Sausage, and we make it up the old-fashioned-country way—in two-pound cloth rolls. Take some home next time you shop. Oh—and try it on pizza. It's unbelievably good!

Yours for pepper breakfasts.

Kathleen Krey

P.S. We're also making a new "mild" blend now. I hope you'll try a package for a change of taste. Just great for poultry dressing.
