

Cardinal Mooney Champs Again!

The Cardinal Mooney basketball team rolled over St. Anthony of Padua, Watkins Glen, 66-47, to successfully defend its Diocesan High School Tournament championship last Sunday at Monroe Community College. It was Mooney's third title in a row.

Coach Ed Nietopski's Cardinals reached the final round by downing stubborn Notre Dame of Elmira, 58-39, Saturday. St. Anthony's, which finished with 134 record, was led by Rick Gaston and Hank Karsch who scored 14 points each.

Aquinas Slates Mission Bouts Tomorrow Night

By WHIT JOHNSON. The annual Mission Bouts, sponsored by Aquinas Institute, are set for tomorrow night, Saturday, March 22, in the old R.I.T. gymnasium on Spring Street. Ten bouts, pairing 20 fighters in weight classes from flyweight to heavyweight, will feature boys swinging for titles they have trained for since last January. The curtain-raiser at R.I.T. will be at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are available at the door.

Aquinas is one of the few schools in the country which has a regular boxing program. The sport of boxing has been popular at Aquinas since the school began. The Association with the Missions began in 1937 and has been an annual feature of the Aquinas Sports program ever since. According to Father Cyril F. Carter, C.S.B., Aquinas athletic director, the Mission Bouts stress skill rather than brawn in the matches. "The aim," says Father Carter, "is to pile up points through technical skill rather than to 'kill' the opponent."

Elimination bouts began last Monday in the school gymnasium. Defending champions include: Atomic Weight — Leo Carroll; Featherweight — Al Brocuto; Bantamweight — Mike Utaro; Flyweight — Dennis Prentiss; Middleweight — Dave Reisinger; Heavyweight — Bill Cijfelli. In addition to the St. Rae Hickok Trophy, annually awarded to the outstanding fighter, another trophy honoring Abe Raff, former sportsman and local businessman who for many years has helped with the bouts, will be presented to the TWO

Mort L

By ARTHUR P. FAR. Hundreds of former Institute High School — particularly those not 55 years of age — expect a bit of nostalgia this week. The announcement of the retirement of a Rochester advertiser — Mortimer J. Leary — is a case in point. Mort Leary — who played baseball for 22 years, from 1945 — will retire April 65 after 25 years with Hutchins Advertising Co. Mort will be listed by historians as one of the "legends" of the city. Chronologically, he played basketball and baseball from 1920 to 1924 — during the brightest years
