

Parish Party to Honor School Faculty

Preparing plans for dinner dance to honor faculty of Guardian Angels School, Henrietta, to be held Friday, April 18, in school hall are pastor, principal, and members of sponsoring Home School Association, from left: Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Mooney, Mr. and Mrs. John Janda; Sister Edward Loraine, SSJ.; Father John B. Kleintjes.

Symposium Planned on Sex Course

A symposium on sex education is scheduled at 7:45 p.m. Friday, April 25, at the Rochester Public Library under the sponsorship of Parents Against Unacceptable Sex Education and Mothers Concerned.

Principal speaker will be James Likoudis, a history teacher at Rosary Hill College, Buffalo. Also on the panel will be representatives of the legal and medical professions.

Lidouski was chairman of the history department at St. John of the Altonement Seminary, Watkins Glen, until last year.

He said this week that, on behalf of Catholics from the Rochester and Buffalo Dioceses, he had written a petition to the National Conference of Catholic Bishops to halt sex education in Catholic schools.

Registrations Due for Stella Maris

Registrations are now being received for June-July-August camping periods for Camp Stella Maris, diocesan camp on Conesus Lake.

There are six one-week camping periods for boys from 7 to 15 years of age (June 22-Aug. 2), and three one-week periods for girls from 8 to 14 years of age (Aug. 3-23). There also is an option to combine periods for a longer encampment.

Information or registration cards can be obtained from the camp office by writing or telephoning the Camp Secretary, 50 Chestnut St. Rochester 14604 (716/454-2030).

Mrs. Donald Mulcahy, camp director, this week urged parents to register early. He said the camp offers a complete program of activities, and added:

"Parents can rest assured in the knowledge that safety and supervision are primary concerns of the camp staff.

"Red Cross trained lifeguards and carefully selected counselors and school teachers comprise a very capable professional staff. In addition, a resident chaplain and nearby physician are always on call."

Bob Feller to Be Main Speaker at Red Wing Fete

Bob Feller, former Cleveland pitcher and one of the "all-time greats" in baseball history, will be principal speaker at the 41st annual Rochester Red Wings homecoming dinner at 8:30 p.m. Thursday, April 24, in the Mapledale Party House, 1020 Maple St.

The dinner is sponsored by the Monroe County American Legion. Herbert Muhs is chairman.

Many sports figures and civic leaders are expected to attend, to welcome home the Red Wings' new manager, Cal Ripkin, and the 1969 team. Eddie Meath will be toastmaster.

"A summer adventure at camp," he continued, "can provide a rewarding and satisfying experience. Pride of accomplishment — making leather goods or pottery, learning to swim with supervision, or handling a canoe properly — is immeasurable. These and many more experiences will be yours to share when your 'camper' returns home."

Aquinas Thinclads Prep for Opener

Expectations run high at Aquinas as its track team prepares to run in the Penfield Relays tomorrow, April 19, and to compete against East High next Tuesday.

Coach (Father) Don McCarthy will rely on a bevy of experienced seniors and a large crop of enthusiastic juniors and sophomores.

Heading the list of returnees are seniors John Brophy and Jim Becker, sprint specialists. They will be supported by the running of juniors Rick Block, Dave Riley and John Morrison, along with Mike Palumbo, a promising sophomore.

Neil Duffy, the team's leading quarter miler last year, is looking for another top season. Tom LeBeau and Dan Maxwell, a pair of speedy sophomores, have been outstanding in practice in the middle distance event. The Irish will be powerful in the 880 with Jim Bossert and Mike Maglin carrying the scoring load and backed up by Steve Izzo.

Outstanding distance runners include Paul Ford, Jim Crawford, Tom Bachman and Tom Cramer, all returning with considerable experience. Promising sophomores are Jack Desso, Chuck Bachmann and Bill Fox.

Always strong in the field events, Aquinas will count on Tom LeBeau and Mark Schmidt in the long jump and Ed Mancuso in the triple jump. Tom Sextstone has impressed in the high jump. Senior Jim Battag-

OFFICERS ELECTED

Members of Our Lady's Guild of Holy Name Church elected new officers at their April meeting. They include Mrs. Doris Calabra, president; Mrs. Maebelle Boyle, vice-president; Mrs. Virginia Mueller, secretary; and Mrs. Gloria Friga, treasurer.

Mrs. Calabra said the Guild's annual dinner is set for May 19 at the Lakeshore Country Club.
