'Singles' Seeking 'Doubles'?

FATHER REDLON

Bona Alumni Plan Dinner

Area alumni of St. Bonaventure will greet the university president at a dinner-dance at 7 p.m. Saturday at the Brooklea Country Club.

He is the Very Rev. Reginald A. Redlon, OFM., definitor of the Franciscan Order.

A native of Maine, Father Redlon is an alumnus of St. Bonaventure. He also attended Holy Cross College, Washington, D.C., and was ordained in 1949. He also studied psychology at Catholic University in Washington, pursuing the courses in Paris, Switzerland and Belgium, where he obtained a doctorate in philosophy from the University of Louvain in 1955.

Previous to his appointment at St. Bonaventure in 1967, he was rector of St. Francis College, Rye Beach, N.H.

Chairman of the dinner-dance committee is William J. Heneghan. He will be assisted by officers of the Rochester Chapter of the alumni association, headed by Joseph Resch, president.

Parishes Book Fr. Bertin Roll

Capuchin Father Bertin Roll, national director of the Archconfraternity of Christian Mothers for the past 25 years, will speak next week at several meetings in the Rochester area.

On Monday, April 28, at 8 p.m., he will address the Christian Mothers' Club of St. Andrew's. On Tuesday, at 7:30 he will be at St. Anne's, at a Parent-Teacher Club meeting that will feature also the school children's annual art display.

On Wednesday night at 8, the St. Anne's Mothers' Club of St. Rose parish, Lima, will present Father Roll at a public meeting in the Lima High School cafeteria. His topic will be "The Christian Family in a Changing World."

Researcher to Be Fisher Speaker

A Fulbright-Hays research scholar, whose prime interest is the historical aspects of mathematics, will speak at 7:30 pm. Friday, April 25, in the new science building of St. John Fisher College.

Dr. Hubert C. Kennedy, associate professor of mathematics at Providence College, is sponsored by the Fisher department of mathematics.

Home-School Unit Plans Election

The Home-School Association of Our Mother of Sorrows will elect officers and vote on amendments to the Board of Education constitution Thursday night, April 24.

The meeting, at 8 p.m. in the school hall, will feature a film, "Inscape," and a discussion.

Forty Hours

Forty Hours devotions will begin April 27 at the following places: St. John the Evangelist, Rochester; Bradford; St. Cecilia, Elmira; St. Ann, Hornell; Phelps, Victor and Weedsport.

PRODUCTS AND SERVICES in tune with modern living

By Ruth DeMallie

MRS. JOHNSTON SAYS:

"In my opinion, one of the best things about being in the field of cosmetics and wigs, is the nice people you get to meet." To prove her point Mrs. Johnston introduces us to women of fashion who care enough about their appearance to take in stride new innovations meant for glamour. The truly smart women are those who make looking attractive part of their everyday life—not just a special-occasion thing. Wigs and hairpieces, so much a part of modern glamour are a fun-fashion and convenient. DEONE'S caters to the gals who want one wig and to many who are choosing a wardrobe of wigs. May we introduce you to Mrs. Murphy?

MRS. MURPHY SAYS:

Mrs. E. Murphy has this to say about the wardrobe of wigs she owns: "It gives me a lift to be able to change my hair color according to my mood."

She is shown wearing the very newest of human hair wigs on the market, which is ash blonde with silver whisper streak frosting . . . Another of her wigs has a reddish-blonde tone, a custom color creation by DEONE'S.

To Mrs. Murphy her wig wardrobe is more than a fashion; it is also a tremendous convenience in the busy life she leads. Mrs. Murphy is a Deputy Sheriff in the Monroe County Sheriff's Dept. and is assigned to Supreme Court Division. In addition to this full-time occupation, Mrs. Murphy is active in Greece politics, attending various meetings and functions. She is a past Executive Committeewoman of The Town of Greece and a past president of the Greece Women's Republican Club. Her wig wardrobe is by DEONE'S in the Greece Towne Mall.

DEAR DOG LOVER:

I am a 12-year old miniature poodle, gentle and well bred. My mistress and master are going away due to a family emergency and they are looking for some kind-hearted folks to board me in their own home, starting May 20 for 4 to 6 weeks. I need companionship and love. Will you take in a paying boarder? Please call 244-5100.
