Bishop Helps Parish
Note Milestone

Newark — Bishop Fulton J. Sheen is surrounded by parishioners of St. Michael's Church, Newark, following Mass there April 27 in observance of the 100th anniversary of the parish.

Church here Sunday, Sept. 27, marking the 100th anniversary of the parish.

Nearly 600 parishioners and guests attended the 5 p.m. Mass. Guests included Newark Mayor Milton Elzout and Town Supervisor George E. Lookup and their wives.

Among priests who attended were several former assistants at St. Michael's, including Fathers Henry A. Atwell, James R. Cosgrove, Joseph T. Gaynor, Emmett J. Halloran, Gary A. LaLonde, James C. Lane, James S. Russell and Alexander Stee.

Also a concelebrant was Father Lawrence Murphy, spiritual director of Becket Hall, who attended Newark schools and served as an altar boy at St. Michael's.

Father Joseph M. McDonnell is pastor of the century-old parish, succeeding Father Henry J. Doerbecker in 1957. Father Doerbecker now resides in St. Ann's Home.

DRAPERY DRY CLEANING

Thurston Cleaners has simplified the dry cleaning of draperies and cut the cost while giving homemakers a service they like. About 2-hours is all it takes for cleaning and pleating, with their drapery-fold method. "In most cases," says David Thurston, pressing is unnecessary in today's fabrics. This is not a do-it-yourself, but a full service dry cleaning that costs about 1/2 of what you'd expect. THURSTON CLEANERS, 1023 Norton St. (end of North St.) 467-1241.

ELECTROLYSIS

You can look forward to warm weather, poolside, vacations, etc. with the removal of unwanted hair from arms, legs, body. Now is the time to start your treatments at GERBER'S STUDIO, 515 Temple Bldg., where Joseph and Sally Gerber offer Free Electrolysis for both men and women. Removal of excess hair is permanent, safe and done by the Gerbers who are reliable and experienced.

Concert Planned For Children

A special performance for children will be included as one of four concerts this weekend by the 100-voice choir of the Sisters of St. Joseph.

All performances will be in the St. Agnes High School Auditorium. Their theme is "Our American Heritage."

The concert for children is scheduled at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 3. Admission for the matinee is $1.

The other three performances are slated at 8:15 p.m. Saturday, and at 3 and 8:15 p.m. Sunday. Admission is $2, with reserved seats at $3.50.

Proceeds will be used for the continuing education of the Sisters of St. Joseph.

McQuaid Sets Entrance Exams

Entrance examinations for the eighth grade at McQuaid Jesuit High School are scheduled at the school on Saturday, May 3, according to Father Joseph Gersitz, S.J., principal.

Father Gersitz also announced that the school will offer its co-ed summer school program from July 7 to Aug. 15. Registration is slated on June 30 and July 1.

New Halls to Rise At Nazareth

Ground will be broken in May for new residence halls at Nazareth College, the president, Sister Helen Daniel, SSJ., announced this week.

She said contracts had been let for the construction of three buildings and a central recreation area on the Pittsford campus. The dormitories will house about 320 students.

WIDOWED PARENT CLUB TO HEAR FR. SCHNACKY

"My Work on Joseph Avenue" will be Father Paul Schnacky's topic tonight at 8:15, at a meeting of the Catholic Widowed Parent Club in St. Theodore's school hall, 108 Spencerport Road.

Father Schnacky is assistant pastor of Holy Redeemer.

LIVONIA HOLY NAME TO SEE SACRAMENTS FILM

Livonia — Father Lewis E. Brown, assistant pastor of Assumption Church in Fairport, will present a sound film on the Sacraments at 8:15 p.m. Monday at St. Joseph's Church. A discussion will follow, and refreshments will be served.

The Holy Name Society of St. Joseph's invites the men and women of the parish and of St. William's to bring their friends. Edward Haefner and George Hetzler are chairmen.
