K of C Council Elects Hethcoat Grand Knight

Newark — Edward M. Hethcoat was elected grand knight of Newark Council, Knights of Columbus, at the annual election June 10.

Elected to serve with him for the coming year were Bernard F. De Pauw, deputy grand knight; Paul L. Murphy, chancellor; Orville J. Martin, recorder; William D. O'Connell, treasurer; Alex Pizzirusso, lecturer; Joseph F. Fonti, advocate; Harold N. Pitts, warden; John P. De Fabio, inside guard and William T. Kelly, outside guard.

Elected as trustees were James E. Earley, Tommy J. Davis and Alphonse J. Porter, outgoing grand knight.

Joseph M. Sullivan, who has served the local council for the past 22 years as financial secretary, will continue in that office.

Elected as delegates to the state convention were Edward Hethcoat and Orville Martin, with Joseph Sullivan and Albelt A. Colacino as alternates. Elected as delegates to the Central New York Chapter quarterly meetings were Hethcoat, Sullivan, O'Connell, Murphy and DePauw.

The new officers will begin their term of office on July 1.

Priest Outlines Minority Problem

Social workers should look at Puerto Ricans as members of a different culture, but not a lesser culture, Father Laurence Tracy, assistant pastor of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, declared last week.

Father Tracy was among speakers addressing the first of three seminars sponsored by the Monroe County Mental Health Chapter, held at the Rochester Chamber of Commerce.

The seminar series, to be continued June 20 and 27, was organized to give mental health workers from city agencies a better understanding of inner city attitudes.

Mental illness can be a problem for a Puerto Rican in Rochester, Father Tracy pointed out.

"Many annoying things come up in the life of an immigrant Puerto Rican family," he said, "such as misunderstandings about their name, the high cost of food, and concern about their children's poor school marks." These may lead to imbalance, he noted.

11 High Schools List Graduations
