

CONESUS CAMP CRAFTS—Hand craft instruction is one of the many facets of activity at Camp Stella Maris, diocesan camp on East Lake Road, Conesus Lake, which opened first of six boys' encampments this week. Two weeks' encampment for girls is scheduled from Aug. 3 to 16. Information may be obtained by calling or writing the Camp Office, 50 Chestnut St., Rochester 14604 (716/454-2030).

Confrontation CCD Publishers

By JOAN ZUMMO
In choosing a text for your CCD program it is necessary first to become acquainted with the needs and resources of your parish and then to become familiar with the various text books available.
Several hours of browsing through samples of books at the CCD Office is one good way to gain this familiarity. The CCD Office personnel are willing and able to answer your questions regarding the many materials now being published. If you prefer, call Rita DeVoldre at the office for an appointment or information regarding publishers or texts.
Another way to examine the books offered is to write directly to the publishers. Most offer sample material free of charge or else offer sample kits at very reasonable rates. The following is a list of the publishers used most commonly in this diocese:
• Bible, Life, and Worship Series (Allyn and Bacon; Catholic Division, Rockleigh, N.J. 07647). The series consists of an introductory volume which includes a biblical theology of Baptism. And graded texts that are accompanied by catechists' guidebooks. An examination copy of a text will be sent on request.
• Word and Worship Program (Benziger Bros., 260 Park Ave. South, N.Y., N.Y.). The area representative is Patrick Malone, R.D. 2, Mechanville, N.Y. 12118. Benziger's publications include student texts and teacher's manuals for the elementary grades, multi-sensory teaching kits for grades 1 and 2, separate child's and parent-teacher manuals for First Eucharist and First Penance preparation, a parent's guide, and several other publications applicable to preschool level, high school level, and adult level programs.
• On Our Way Series (W. H. Sadlier, Inc., 11 Park Place, N.Y., N.Y. 10007). Includes graded elementary texts, teacher manuals, and home workbooks. Sadlier also publishes a high school series and has a new kindergarten level program called For You and Me which includes work tablets, parent letters, teaching outlines, posters and songs. Preparation manuals for Penance and Eucharist are also available.
• Come to the Father Program (Paulist Press, 21 Harbortown Road, Glen Rock, N.J. 07452). Consists of a nursery level program, texts for the elementary grades, teacher-parent manuals, teacher-parent commentaries on doctrinal themes, a teaching aid package for the 5th grade, records, posters, child's prayer book, and slides. There are also available handbooks for parent-teacher-priest meetings, and a teacher training institute kit. An introductory kit which includes student books and an introduction to the course can be ordered for $2.50.
Paulist also publishes material which can be used in high school or adult programs.
Another good source of materials is the Catechetical Distribution Center, National Center of Christian Doctrine, 1312 Massachusetts Ave., N.W. Washington, D.C. 20005. They will send you a book catalog on request, which includes a listing of texts, teacher references, and visual materials, films, charts, pictures, records, and organizational material from all the major publishers. The materials can be purchased directly from the center.

Knights Honor Deceased Members

Bishop James E. Kearney celebrated annual field Mass last Sunday in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery at which Rochester Regiments, Knights of St. John, memorialized members who had died during the last year. The Bishop, shown at altar on steps of cemetery chapel, extolled "men of religious principle," St. John the Baptist and St. John Fisher, who had the "courage to give their lives for their religious beliefs."

Maryknollers Go To Mission Jobs

Two Maryknoll Sisters from this diocese were sent out to foreign missions June 15 at a departure ceremony at the Motherhouse, Maryknoll, N.Y.

Sister Mary Lou Herlihy of Rochester was assigned to Korea and Sister Agnes Donovan of Auburn, to Middle America. They were among 44 missionaries from 29 Dioceses who received assignments at the ceremony.

The Rochester nun, from Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Herlihy of 51 Bellance Street. She is a graduate of Mercy High School, before entering Maryknoll; she attended "D'Youville College" in Buffalo and worked for a year at the Eastman Savings and Loan Association. Her education was continued in Mary Rogers College, Maryknoll.

Sister Agnes attended Auburn public schools and entered Maryknoll in 1939. Graduated from Mary Rogers College in 1945, she later earned the M.A. degree in religion and in pastoral counseling.

VISITING CAPITAL

Sixty-four children and 18 chaperones are visiting Washington, D.C., under the sponsorship of the Junior-Legion of Mary. The bus tour will return to Rochester Sunday night.

JOHN WOLOSYN Kearney Grad Wins Grant

John A. Woloszyn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Woloszyn of Hudson Avenue, and June graduate of Bishop Kearney High School, was named the 1968 recipient of the $1000 Michael Stanley Broki Memorial Scholarship.

Woloszyn achieved an outstanding academic record in the Honors Program at Kearney, according to Brother Edward Tracey, principal of the school. He will attend Niagara University in the fall.

The award is given annually to students of Polish descent by the Rochester Polish People's Home.

McQuaid Grad Takes Bride

Robert Emmet Klem of Rochester and Miss Jane Elizabeth Horton of Liverpool spoke marriage vows before Father William J. Richardson, S.J., of Fordham University, in the Liverpool Methodist Church last Saturday.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Norbert B. Klem of Rochester and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Horton of Liverpool. Mrs. Klem is a graduate of State University College at Albany with a B.A. degree in Education. Her husband graduated from McQuaid Jesuit High School in Rochester, Fordham University with a B.S. degree and is finishing work toward a Ph.D. degree in chemistry at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy where the couple will live.

Banner Year for McQuaid Track

The track and field records board at McQuaid Jesuit High is in for a major overhaul this summer after a triumphant season that saw 8 individual and 6 relay marks fall to this year's Knights.

Four men will have their names next to four new records piece. Senior Mark Welt ran on 4 relay teams that established new times: the 440 team in 43.4, the 880 team in 1:29.7, the mile relay team in 3:29.8, and the mile medley team in 3:38. Classmate Mark Weider joined Welt on the first 3 teams and hooked up with juniors Dean Stanley, Bill Lenyk, and Phil Horton in a record distance medley of 7:54.9. Ned Roland, also a senior, was part of the 440, 880, and mile medley squads and posted a new individual record in the 100 with a 9.8, best in the area this season. Junior Mike Pignato also was part of the Knights' 440 and 880 teams, ran lead-off leg on the mile team, and notched an impressive 21.6 record in the 220.

Next in prominence were seniors Bob Lawrence and Rick Stone. Lawrence long-jumped 22 feet, 1 inch, anchored the mile medley, and led off on the two-mile team (8:15.6) that included Stanley and seniors Bob Wafer and Pete Clark. Stone succeeded Welt as individual scoring champion with a record 137.4 points and lowered his 120 high hurdles mark to 15.0.

Three juniors claimed the remaining records. Al Bredekamp stretched his long legs to a 50.9 mark in the 440, ran a 30.7 leg on the mile relay team, and led off the record mile medley. Horton posted a 9:58.9 clocking in the 2-mile, chopping almost 18 seconds off the old mark. And Art DiAntonio came up with a 43-11 triple jump, adding 16 inches to the previous best.

All of the record busting added up to a 12-1 season for the Knights in dual and triangular meets, as well as championships in the Hornell Invitational, Elmira and Aquinas Relays, and Diocesan Meet. The Knights also led the way in the Inter-Diocesan Meet, outscoring by 38-17 Christian Brothers Academy of Syracuse, which dealt them their lone defeat back in April.

March of Dimes Makes Awards

The Monroe County Chapter of the March of Dimes has approved four $200 awards to students planning to enter the health field.
