

Need Chores Done? Give Teens Jobs

How can you help inner city youngsters?
Lawn mowing, garden weeding, basement cleaning, attic painting?
For the sixth year, the Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) is endeavoring to give deprived youngsters something to do to earn some money during the summer. They're concentrating on the "forgotten age group"—the 14-15-year-olds.
If you have any "odd jobs" which you'd like to get done, telephone the CYO (454-2030) any morning, Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to noon. Ask for the CYO Job Placement Service.

The CYO serves merely as a "clearing house," and assumes no employer-employee obligations. They ask that the youngster be engaged for a minimum of three hours at $1.25 per hour.
BENEFIT BREAKFAST
Concessions — A benefit breakfast for St. William's Church will be held Sunday morning, Aug. 3, from 8 to 11:30, at Conlon-Mulvaney Legion Post.

Karen Scofero of 1220 Jackson Road, Webster, receives a Savings Bond and trophy from Miss Josephine Lombardo, president of the Irondequoit Council of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce, in recognition of the "outstanding promise" she showed in business courses at Bishop Kearney High School.

ADVISORY BOARD
Nine parishioners of Holy Ghost Parish have been chosen as members of the Financial Advisory Board. They are: Richard Martin, Peter DeToy, Frank Donahue, William B. Murphy, Peter Baganskas, Robert Birke, John J. Meehan, Robert Reynolds, Frank Welch.
PRAYERS FOR CLERGY AT HOLY CROSS
Prayers for priests, bishops and the Holy Father will be offered at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Aug. 4, at Holy Cross Church, Charlotte. Father Leo J. Mans will celebrate Mass.
