Miami Drug Clinic to Close

A clinic to help cure drug addiction, sponsor ed since last December by the Miami Catholic Welfare Bur eau, was closed by Archbishop Coleman F. Carroll because the cost of operating under federal guidelines would be prohibitive.

The prelate announced "it was readily apparent that the archdiocese alone could no longer afford to continue"

His action came right on the heels of a statement in which Archbishop Carroll said criticism of the clinic would

U.S. Visitor 'Deeply Moved'

Armenian Catholicos Khoren I of the See of Cilicia said he was "deeply moved by visible evidence that the spirit and culture of our fathers lives and grows in North America" as he ended a 14-week tour of the continent.

One of two pontiffs of Armenian Christians, Catholicos Khoren left New York City for Caracas, Venezuela, where he was to visit the Armenian National Organization before returning to his headquarters mear Beirut, Lebanon.

Purpose of his trip here was mainly that of strengthening ties with the congregations of the Armenian Apostolic Church of America. (The Armenian Church, another denomination, is affiliated with the See of Etchmiadzin in

Catholicos Khoren visited each of 33 local churches and met with top religious and governmental leaders, including

Policeman Eyes Priesthood

Patrolman Anthony G. Palmese Jr., who has served 31/2 years on the Montclair, N.J., police force, has been given a year's leave of absence to enter a Roman Catholic Seminary. Palmese, 29, will report to the Monastery of St. Augustine in Kansas City, Kans., to begin training to become a priest in the Order of St. Augustine Recollects. Since joining the Montclair Police Department in 1966.

Palmese has been assigned to every division except the juvenile bureau. He likes being a policeman, but is confident that he is suited to become a priest.

'I have asked the police department for a one-year leave of absence because I feel that this is all the time I will need to know if I will stay with it," he said.

Youths Hear Swiss President

Swiss President Ludwig von Moos told 12,000 Seventhday Advertist young people meeting in Zurich that the future "rests in youth."

"Therefore," he said at the opening session of the denomination's World Youth Congress, "may a good spirit in your congress here ... lead to a peaceful future through a highly correct understanding and moral foundation to which you also are bound."

The Adventists also heard a U.S. denominational executive urge them to find their "escape hatch" from the world's problems in Jesus Christ.

Dr. Earle E. Cleveland of Washington, D.C., associate world director of the Adventists' Ministerial Association, said that "faith in Christ can break any habit, kill any vice turn failure into success, and make you a true leader among other youths.'

"Nature," he said, "was never created to rage out of control—even human nature—and only when subjected to divine-human discipline does it provide the blessing for which it was intended."

2nd High-Rise Unit For Aged Planned In Paterson Diocese

Paterson, N.J. — (NC) — Spurred by the success of its first unit, a private corporation sponsored by the Paterson diocese announced plans to build a second high-rise apartment for senior citizens.

The first project — a 158unit apartment building near downtown Paterson called Governor Paterson Towers has been filled to capacity since it opened nearly two years ago. The second building, to to be known as Govemor Paterson Towers II, will also contain 158 units and will face the first struc-

The Riese Corp., a non-profit organization which operseparately from the federal loan of $2,175,000 to finance the project. The Riese board is composed of volumteer community leaders in various fields of public service and business.

Eligibility for residence in

Governor Paterson Towers is based solely on the minimum age of 62 and maximum income requirements of $4,000 for one adult and $4,800 for a married couple, without regard to race, religion or national origin. Rentals are low. A 31/2-room apartment costs the tenant $121 per month, while rates for efficiency apartments are $91 and $81.

The low rentals are made possible by:

• A low interest rate, with 100 per cent financing by the federal Department of Housing and Urban De-velopment.

• An agreement by the city of Paterson to accept a service charge of L 5 per cent

• Non-profit ownership and management by the Riese

The corporation was named for the Italian town of Riese, birthplace of Pope Plus X.

New Segregation

Aged Victimized, Priest Says

Racine, Wis. - (NC) - A new, serious form of segregation is evolving in society, according to a priest-sociologist.

The segregation is not racial, says Father John O'Connell of Marquette University. It is the tendency of the aged, persons 65 and over, to form a subculture - such as is found in retirement communities - and to segregate themselves, at least physically, from the rest of society.

Father O'Connell encouraged new attitudes toward the aged at a conference at Siena Center here.

"Efforts must be made to make room in the social structure for these persons who are physically and morally capable but at leisure,"

You won't be snowed under by big winter heating bills if you sign up this month for RG&E's 10-Month BUDGET BILLING PLAN

More than half the fuel required to heat your home for a year is used in December, January and February, Obviously, heating bills will be higher following these peak periods and lower in Fall and Spring when you use less fuel.

If you heat with gas or electricity, and it would be more convenient for you to spread those payments equally over ten months, you can, simply by returning the coupon below. Your budget payments would'then start with your September bill.

It costs you no more, or no less, over the entire year to be billed on the Budget Plan than it would to be billed each month for the fuel you actually used.
