

ADORATION SOCIETY LEADERS — Planning 40th anniversary Mass and breakfast of Nocturnal Adoration Society of Monroe County Sept. 7 are (from left) seated — Donald Karal, breakfast committee chairman; Urban Kress, society's executive secretary; standing — Frank Werdein, Robert H. Kalb Sr. and John Reisenberger, executive committee members.

Nocturnal Adoration Unit To Note Anniversary

Bishop Fulton J. Sheen will speak and Bishop James E. Kearney will officiate at the 40th anniversary Mass and breakfast of the Nocturnal Adoration Society of Monroe County on Sunday, Sept. 7, in Rochester.

Bishop Kearney will celebrate the Mass and preach at 8 a.m. in St. Joseph's Church. Bishop Sheen will address society members at 9:30 a.m. at the Flagship Hotel.

More than 20 charter members will be presented and honored at the breakfast.

Nearly 500 men are expected to attend the Mass and breakfast, and Donald Karal, chairman, said tickets will be available at adoration hours in six parishes during the next fortnight.

Hourly vigils of prayers and meditation are held once monthly, usually on the last Saturday-Sunday of the month, at Sacred Heart Cathedral, St. Andrew's Church, Blessed Sacrament and St. Helen's. More limited schedules are conducted at Our Lady of Good Counsel and at St. Jerome's, East Rochester.

Fr. Collins Elected to National Post

Father James P. Collins, chaplain at Elmira Reformatory since 1959, this week was elected president of the American Catholic Correctional Chaplains Association.

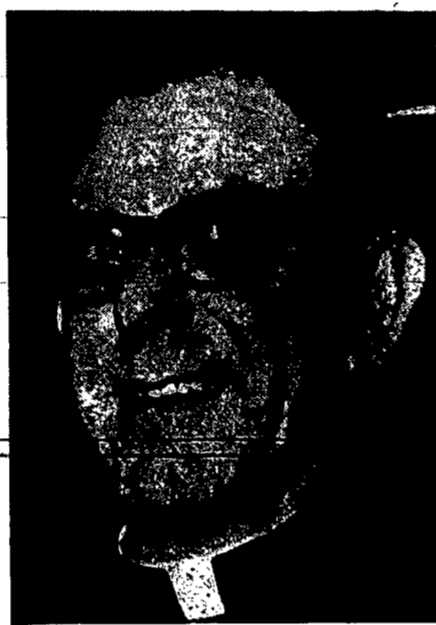

Father Collins was chosen at the American Correctional Association's convention in Minneapolis. He also was elected president-designate of the American Correctional Chaplains Association, a three-faith group.

A native of Rochester, Father Collins attended Immaculate Conception School and St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries, being ordained in 1945. He served as assistant at St. Monica's Church in 1945-49, Holy Family, Auburn, in 1949-57, and St. John the Evangelist's, Rochester, in 1957-59 before being assigned to the Elmira correctional institution.

Father Collins holds a certificate from the Rutgers University Summer School of Alcohol Studies, and has been an instructor in the field of alcoholism at the Moran Institute of St. Lawrence University.

He helped establish Alcoholics Anonymous groups at Elmira Reformatory, and a contact system for inmates on their release. He presently is completing a third term as president of the State Department of Correction Chaplains Association, and is an advisor for the Beacon Group of AA parolees organized five years ago in Rochester by the State Division of Parole.

He is a brother of Father Vincent P. Collins, pastor of St. John of Rochester Church, Perinton, who also has been active in the field of alcoholic rehabilitation.

FR. JAMES P. COLLINS

'Red Mass' Scheduled Sept. 9

Bishop Fulton J. Sheen will celebrate the annual Lawyers' "Red Mass" and preach the homily at 9 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 9, in St. Joseph's Church, Franklin Street.

The Mass traditionally marks the autumn opening of courts. The public is invited.

Public officials and uniformed delegations from the Sheriff's office and the Rochester Police Department will attend. Bishop Sheen will be escorted by a committee of judges of the Seventh Judicial District and the president and past presidents of the Monroe County Bar Association.

Monsignor Healy To Be Honored

The Very Rev. Msgr. James A. Healy, LeRoy's "labor priest," will receive the title of Right Reverend Monsignor at ceremonies in St. Joseph's Cathedral, Buffalo, on Sept. 8.

Msgr. Healy has been active in the field of labor-management relations in the Rochester area. Last week he was appointed a fact-finder in a contract dispute between the Town of Brighton and the Brighton Professional Firefighters' Association. He serves as a mediator for the state's Public Employment Relations Board.

Penn Yan Youth to Join Priesthood On Sept. 6

Penn Yan — Richard E. Morse, OSFS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon B. Morse of 461 N. Main St., will be ordained to the priesthood by Bishop James A. McNulty of Buffalo, on Saturday, Sept. 6, at 10 a.m. in Prince of Peace Church, Niagara Falls.

Father Morse attended St. Michael's Parochial School, Penn Yan Academy, and St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries in Rochester, receiving his bachelor of arts degree in 1963 at St. Bernard's.

In June of 1964 he entered the Novitiate of the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales at Childs, Md., and pronounced first vows on Aug. 21 in St. Anthony's Church, Wilmington, Del. Before continuing his theological studies, he taught English for one year at Northeast Catholic High School in Philadelphia, Pa., and Latin for one year at Judge Memorial High School in Salt Lake City, Utah.

He is beginning his final year of studies at DeSales Hall School of Theology in Hyattsville, Md., and also studying for his master's degree in music education at The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.

Members of the parish and friends are invited to offer with Father Morse a celebrated Mass of Thanksgiving at 12 noon on Sept. 7, in St. Michael's Church here. Following Mass a reception and luncheon will be held in the parish hall.

REV. MORSE

RETREAT PARTICIPANTS — Pictured is part of group which recently participated in a Saturday-Sunday Couples' Retreat sponsored by Spanish Apostolate at St. Michael's Church. In center is Father Gregorio Garcia Martin, and in right rear Fathers Joseph P. Beatini and Laurence Tracy. In front row are Reinaldo and Maria Reyes, Modesta and Vincent Crespo, Father Martin, Radames and Maria Maldonado.

22 Couples Participate in Spanish Retreat

Twenty-two couples took part in two recent weekend retreats for Spanish-speaking husbands and wives under the sponsorship of the Rochester Spanish Apostolate.

Conducting the programs was Father Gregorio Garcia Martin, recently brought into the diocese by Bishop Fulton J. Sheen as director of Spanish-speaking Catholic Family Movement and spiritual director of the "Catholic Brothers," an apostolate for migrant workers.

Retreat exercises were held in St. Michael's Church on Saturday from 7 to 10 p.m. and on Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Assisting in arrangements were Father Anthony Calimeri, director of the diocesan Spanish Apostolate movement, and Father Benedict A. Ehmann, pastor of St. Michael's.

Several priests from area parishes attended the retreat closings.

"DISTANT" COUSINS — Cousins of the Willig family, associated with Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, are pictured at a recent meeting in Rochester. From left are: Sister Catherine Teresa Willig, SSJ, who has been serving in Elmira and will leave next month for the Sisters of St. Joseph Hospital in Selma, Alabama; Miss Marie Willig, Rochester; Sister Anna Maria Willig, RGS, who is serving in a Good Shepherd mission in Seoul, South Korea.

They Serve Missions At Both Ends of World

Three members of the Willig family, long associated with Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, Rochester, are what might be termed "distant" cousins.

Two cousin graduates of OLPH School who entered religious orders nearly 40 years ago will be engaged in similar endeavors next month: missionary work.

But they'll be an ocean apart — one in Seoul, South Korea, the other in Selma, Ala.

They are Sister Anna Marie Willig, RGS, now in Korea, and Sister Catherine Teresa Willig, SSJ, a Sister of St. Joseph who has been serving in Elmira and who will begin labors in Selma in September.

Another cousin whom the Sisters visited some time ago is Miss Marie Willig, 83, 12 Borchard St., Rochester — a parishioner of OLPH Church.

Sister Anna Marie has been in foreign missions since a year after she entered the Good Shepherd Order in Peckskill in 1930.

Sister Catherine Teresa has been serving at St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing for several years, teaching religion to nursing students. She recently volunteered for service at the Sisters' hospital in Alabama.

Sister Anna Marie began her missionary work in 1932 in Shanghai, where she helped establish the first Good Shepherd Home for Girls in China. During the latter years of World War II their work was halted.

Widowed Parents Club To Resume Meetings

The Catholic Widowed Parent Club will hold its first meeting of the season at 8:15 p.m. Friday, Sept. 5, in St. Theodore's School, Spencerport Road. Father Gerald Dunn, moderator, will address the group.

Persons interested in the club may obtain information from Jim Meehan, president, at 235-1448, or Francis Hickey, vice president, 328-8222.

SPECIAL FEATURE
 TODAY THRU SUNDAY, AUG. 24
STEAK WITH PEPPERS 'N CLAMS
 Includes
 • A perfect combination of choice steak as you like it rare, medium or well complemented with roasted peppers • A Bag of Cherrystone Clams Shipped Direct from the Nation's Largest Fisheries, steamed to perfection and served with Drawn Butter and Clam Broth • Crisp Fresh Chef Salad served with Your Favorite Dressing • Steaming Hot Baked Potato served with butter or Sour Cream & Chives • Hot Roll Basket and Fresh Creamery Butter.
3 95 SERVED ANYTIME

Rund's
After Nine
 Proudly Presents
JEFF CRAIG
 The Superb Piano and Song Entertainer direct from One of America's most Famous night clubs in Chicago. Jeff is a real pro who is sure to please your every musical desire.

Rochester's House of Good Food for Generations
 2851 West Henrietta Road
 473-3891
 Closed Monday

Rund's