

St. Jude Chapel rising on State Hospital Grounds.

St. Jude's Chapel Progressing

One of Rochester's newest Catholic sanctuaries—St. Jude's Chapel—is rising rapidly on the grounds of the Rochester State Hospital at Elmwood and South Avenues.

Father James L. Callan, state hospital chaplain, said the new building hopefully will be ready for use by Oct. 28—the feast of St. Jude.

Designed to seat 407 persons, it will serve the religious needs of the nearly 1,500 Catholics at the state institution.

Architecture of the chapel will conform to that of the $3,000,000 State Hospital Patients Rehabilitation Center, now under construction along Elmwood Avenue just north of the chapel building.

By its central location among the institution's buildings, the chapel will be a convenient focal point for patients. Much of the side of the structure will be windowed to avoid any feeling of confinement.

It will allow not only for Sunday but for daily Mass, for

Nun to Receive Mission Cross

Sister Mary Bridget Cruttenden of the Holy Spirit Missionary Sisters will receive her mission cross this Sunday, Aug. 24, from Bishop Fulton J. Sheen.

Soon after a brief stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Cruttenden of 42 Riverside, she will leave for Ghana, West Africa, where she will be a teacher.

The new missionary pronounced her perpetual vows last Friday at the community's motherhouse in Techny, Ill. Sunday's ceremony will take place during the 5 p.m. Mass at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

As Jean Marie Cruttenden the nun attended Our Lady of Good Counsel school and Nazareth College. She is a graduate of Barat College, Lake Forest, Ill., and has been teaching in elementary schools for four years.
