

Church-Guided Conscience

suit our mores. It is human to come down! If he came down, he never would lead us! It is Divine to hang there!

Francis Thompson depicted the Church under the image of the "Lily of the King", as undergoing heresy and blackouts.

"O Lily of the King! low lies thy silver wing, And long has been the hour of thine unqueening;

And thy scent of Paradise on the night-wind spills its sighs,

Nor any take the secrets of its meaning, O Lily of the King! I speak a heavy thing, O patience, most sorrowful of daughters!

Lo, the hour is at hand for the troubling of the land,

And red shall be the breaking of the waters. Sit fast upon thy stalk, when the blast shall with thee talk,

With the mercies of the King for thine awning; And the just understand that thine hour is at hand,

Thine hour at hand with power in the dawning. When the nations lie in blood, and their kings a broken brood,

Look up, O most sorrowful of daughters! Lift up thy head and hark what sounds are in the dark.

For His feet are coming to thee on the waters! O Lily of the King! I shall not see, that sing, I shall not see the hour of thy queening!

But my Song shall see, and wake like a flower that dawn-winds shake.

And sigh with joy the odours of its meaning, O Lily of the King, remember then the thing That this dead mouth sang; and thy daughters, As they dance before His way, sing there on the Day

What I sang when the Night was on the waters!"
