Lay Group Formed In Southern Tier

Elmira — Organization of a Southern Tier Association of Catholics (STAC) will be undertaken at a meeting at 8:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 26, in the Mark Twain Hotel.

Purpose of the group is described as "Catholics individually fulfilling their roles within the Catholic tradition, and seeking to reflect, speak and act on local, regional, national and Churchwide issues, as one unified voice addressing the Church from within the Church."

A proposed constitution will be presented and officers will be elected at the meeting. Temporary officers include Arden Weiterman, Apalachin, president, and Irene Navatta, Elmira, secretary.

The association will ask that its representative be included on the agenda for a diocesan Priests' Council meeting scheduled in Elmira on Nov. 17.

Objectives of the association are listed as follows:

To stimulate Catholics and the institutions of the Church to promote the dignity and human rights of all individuals; to stimulate individual Catholics and the institutions of the Church to work for peace among men and nations; to work toward a freer and more responsible communion within the Church; to foster democratic participation in parochial and diocesan administration; to promote religious education based on the needs and priorities of all; to clarify and communicate the role and formation of individual conscience; to promote the development of a natural and realistic liturgy; to assist in the growth of genuine ecumenism.
