Sex Education

Michael L. Delahunty (center), national president of Ancient Order of Hibernians, accepts contributions for Northern Ireland Relief Fund Nov. 15 in Elmira from W. David Call, president of Msgr. John J. Lee Division, AOH, of Chemung County, and Agnes Reidy, president of the division's Auxiliary.

By JOAN ZUMMO
 CCD teachers in the Rochester area are invited to attend a Sex Education Workshop sponsored by the Lay Advisory Board of the CCD Office. The program is scheduled for 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 6, at St. Agnes High School Auditorium.

Directed to teachers of all grade levels the workshop is intended to help teachers develop the attitudes and sensitivity necessary to deal adequately with questions that arise in the classroom.

The program, which is under the direction of Dr. Gerard T. Guerinot, M.D., Advisor to the Vicar of Religious Education, will consist of talks, and question and answer sessions on the topics of "Why sex education", "The Physiology of Sex, The Philosophy of Sex, and the Psychology of Sex Education. Speakers will include Sister Ruth Agnes, SSJ., Father Daniel Brent, diocesan superintendent of schools, Dr. Arthur Florrack, and Dr. Guerinot.

An excellent preparation for the workshop is the book, "The Wonder of Sex," by Dr. and Mrs. John C. Willke which is available from Trant's Inc., 96 Clinton Ave. N. or from the Family Life Bureau, 1312 Mass. Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20005. The authors also have records by the same title. Their books and records will be available for purchase or ordering at the workshop as well as brochures for other material. Some of you may also be familiar with Dr. and Mrs. Willke from their recent speaking engagement at the Nazareth College Arts Center.

Another good sex education series is the Concordia Sex Education Series which consists of four filmstrips and four books. The books are available from Trant's or from the publisher and are especially suited to use in the home. The filmstrips, which cover the same material as the books, are available from A-V dealers, the publishers, or may be rented at the CCD Office. The titles of both the books and filmstrips are as follows: I Wonder, I Wonder, ages 5-9, Wonderfully Made, age 10-12, Take the High Road—ages 13-16, and Parents Guide to Christian Conversation About Sex.

AOH Starts Drive for Funds

Elmira — Hibernians in the Chemung County area have undertaken a drive for funds "to help eradicate the fierce hatred and mistreatment of our suffering brethren in Northern Ireland."

Nearly 200 members of the Msgr. John J. Lee Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians, attended a kickoff dinner for the purpose Nov. 15 in St. Patrick's Church hall here.

Michael L. Delahunty of Newark, N.J., national AOH president and principal speaker, said the national organization has set a million-dollar goal "not only to relieve the economic hardships of the riot victims but also to help restore dignity and civil liberties to them."

a former State AOH director, introduced Cornelius Collins of Waterbury, Conn.; Timothy P. Finn, Orangeburg, N.Y., national organizer; Thomas McNabb, Auburn, and George Foley, Troy, state officers, and Daniel McQuiston president of the AOH Dr. Tom Dooley Division, Camillus.

Entertainment was provided by the Onondaga Gaelic Dancers, under direction of Charles Courtney, and "Dooley's Flying Column," Camillus, who sang traditional Irish songs. Dinner chairmen were Robert J. Long, Gerald P. McLaughlin and John A. Dean.

Auxiliary Bishop John E. McCafferty also spoke. Clergy at the head table included Msgr. Leo G. Schwab, pastor emeritus of Our Lady of Lourdes Church; Father James P. Collins, Elmira Reformatory chaplain; and Father Joseph F. Hogan, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul Church, Corning.

Thomas F. Coggins, Elmira, IRISH PRIMATE NAMED Vatican City—(NC) — Pope Paul VI has named William Cardinal Conway of Armagh, the Primate of All Ireland, as a member of the Congregation for Bishops.
