

MILESTONES

TOP LEFT

AS A PROFESSOR, Father Hogan lectures to collegians at St. John Fisher College. During his 20-year teaching career he taught thousands of students at St. Andrew's Seminary, Canisius College, De Sales High School, St. Bernard's Seminary, St. John Fisher College, the Sisters of St. Joseph Novitiate and Becket Hall.

BOTTOM LEFT

AS A SEMINARY TEACHER, Monsignor Hogan counsels a student at Becket Hall, diocesan preparatory seminary residence. He was rector of Becket Hall from 1963 to 1968.

TOP RIGHT

AS A BUILDER AND FOUNDER, Father Hogan directs groundbreaking for construction of Becket Hall on Apr. 1, 1966. In the background are seminarians, Bishop James E. Kearney, Msgr. John S. Randall and Father Charles Lavery, Father Louis Hohman and Father Raymond Moore.

RIGHT CENTER

AS A RECTOR, Monsignor Hogan stands tall before Becket Hall at the time of its dedication on May 5, 1968.

BOTTOM RIGHT

AS A PASTOR, Monsignor Hogan, with aid of parish Scouts, opens gifts from children of St. Margaret Mary School after their farewell reception for him Nov. 7, 1969. He has been Pastor of St. Margaret Mary Church since June 27, 1968.

BOTTOM CENTER

AS A HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL, Father Hogan confers with faculty at De Sales High School, Geneva. He administered and taught at the school from 1953 to 1955.

(Seated) Sister Rose Adeline, Sister Marie Margaret, Dr. Hogan, Mrs. Howard Klenon, Sister Aquilina; (standing) Sister Agnes Catherine, Sister Conalia, Sister Jeronita, Sister Ann Xavier, Mr. Robert Foley, Sister Rose Eileen, Sister Francis Cecilia, Sister Leo Xavier, Sister Rosemary.

