

Bishop Visits 'Holy Land'

Bishop Hogan's first visit to "Holy Land" as Rochester's new Bishop was to witness Bethlehem-Jerusalem diorama currently on display at St. Charles Borromeo School in Greece. He is pictured with Bernard (Bud) Miller, St. Charles parishioner who designed and operates the 55-foot long, eight-minute audio-visual Nativity panorama currently attracting crowds at the parish school. Bishop Hogan commended Miller for authenticity of his Holy Land reproduction.

New Order of the Mass

This is the first in a series of articles on the New Order of the Mass.

By FATHER VINCENT J. GIESE
(NC News Service)

When the new Order of the Mass is introduced in the local parish the average Catholic churchgoer, on any given Sunday, will probably not be too conscious of Mass being celebrated much differently from what he is now accustomed to.

As a matter of fact, the changes provided for will probably call for more adjustment on the part of priests than the faithful.

The noticeable difference in the new Eucharistic liturgy will be far more evident from Sunday to Sunday, or Mass to Mass, than within any particular Mass. The basic form of the Mass, which includes four different parts—the Entrance Rite, the Liturgy of the Word, the Liturgy of the Eucharist, the Closing Rite—remains intact.

There are options provided in the four parts of the Mass. How they are utilized to develop a theme for the Mass is where the variety between Masses will become evident.

To illustrate all this, let us preview briefly the Mass of the future, in light of the changes called for in the new Order of the Mass.

THE ENTRANCE RITE

The Entrance Rite includes the entrance procession, accompanied by song, or by recitation of the Introit antiphon; the sign of the cross by priest and people together; and a salutation by the priest; a comment specifying the theme of the Mass; a penitential rite; the "Lord Have Mercy"; the Gloria to God; a call to prayer by the priest; a silent pause; and the prayer of the priest.

The options available are:

- The Introit antiphon and psalm, or a seasonal alternate from the simple Gradual, or an approved appropriate hymn may be sung, or finally, the Introit may be recited by all or alternately with the lector.

- The priest has three possible ways to greet the people.

- The penitential rite, which now replaces the prayers at the foot of the altar, is a communal act of penance, with three optional formulas possible, followed by absolution by the priest.

This is not sacramental absolution, and thus not a substitute for articles of confession. The options are an abbreviation of the Confiteor; a shorter, dialogue form; or a form which incorporates "The Lord Have Mercy."

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The Liturgy of the Word includes the lessons taken from Sacred Scripture, with chants occurring between them; the homily; the Creed; and the Universal Prayer (Prayer of the Faithful).

A third reading on Sundays, Holydays and major feasts, and a new three-year cycle of scripture readings on Sundays (two-year for weekdays) provides a wider exposure to Sacred Scripture. Although the readings from the New Testament will be semi-continuous, those from the Old Testament will match the theme of the New Testament selections.

There also will be more options for Votive Masses, plus more freedom in home Masses, to select appropriate readings from approved lectionaries.

On the days it is prescribed, the Creed becomes a response by the people to the divine initiative taken in Scripture. The Universal Prayer is a more particularized response by the people, in terms of here and now situations. Primarily it is an intercession for others.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

In the Liturgy of the Eucharist, which includes the Offertory, the Eucharistic Prayers, and the Communion Rite, the major change appears in the preparation of the gifts, including gifts for the poor, to be accompanied by song of the faithful.

The same three options are available for the Offertory song as were available for the Entrance song. But the Offertory verse should either be sung or eliminated; it is never recited.

The offertory prayers of the priest, formerly in Latin, have been abbreviated and are now said silently in English. All the people are now to respond to the "prayer, brethren" and the priest will pray aloud the prayer over the gifts, as before.

As for the Eucharistic prayers, the new options for four eucharistic prayers (Canons) and a variety of possible Prefaces remains, as before. The words of Consecration will now be the same in all four eucharistic prayers, and there will always be a proclamation of faith.

Finally, the Communion rite is changed in the arrangement of the elements, but most noticeably for the priest. In the new order, the Communion rite includes the Lord's Prayer (same as before) but with a new conclusion; a prayer of peace; the peace ceremony (handshake or "peace"); the breaking of the bread; the Communion prayer quietly in English by the priest; the hold the Lamb of God, with one (not three) responses of "Lord, I am not worthy"; Communion, accompanied by a Communion song; with options the same as for the Entrance Song; and the Post-communion prayer.

THE CLOSING RITE

The conclusion of the Mass includes a short announcement of the day's readings (with alternate forms); and the recessional accompanied by the song of the faithful.

How each of the four major parts of the Mass can be best understood and celebrated, so that it contributes to the overall effect of the Mass, will be considered in subsequent articles.

Helsinki

(NC News Service)

The Strategic Arms Talks (SALT) between the United States and the Soviet Union have been the most significant since World War II. The talks are being held in Helsinki, Finland, under the leadership of the Division of Arms Control and Arms Reduction, U.S. State Department.

The superpowers, Helsinki said, "are sitting together to see if they can find a way to reduce the threat of nuclear war, and to prevent the kind of nuclear arms race which is the irrationality."

No one, either in Washington, has any doubt about how tough the SALT negotiations will be.

Since the Dalai Lama's flight from Tibet, the Red Chinese spirit has been out in the north in farming, of orphaned first.
