

His Umbrella Covers U.S. Mission Activities

Washington—(NC)—Bishop William Graham Connare, perhaps aptly now, can be described as the man with the enormous umbrella.

The umbrella is the newly formed United States Catholic Mission Council.

"The council is organized so it will bring together in five categories the organizations presently serving in the mission apostolate," Bishop Connare said. He enumerated these categories:

1. The National Conference of Catholic Bishops, represented by its committee for the missions.
2. Representatives of all religious orders, societies and communities of men which supply missionary personnel.
3. A similar representation for the groups of religious women missionaries.
4. A committee representing the various missionary groups and support organizations of the laity actively engaged in mission work.

5. A committee representing the various assistance agencies recognized and approved by the Church in the United States, plus representatives of the pontifical mission aid societies.

Books on Loan

The following books of interest to our readers may be found on the shelves of the Rochester Public Library, or may be obtained through any affiliated library in the diocese.

The Whole World is Watching, by Mark Gerson (Viking; 1969). A Harvard college student attempts to explain the contradictions and problems of his generation: Business and Social Science.

How to Raise a Human Being, by Lee Salk and Rita Kramer (Random; 1969). Child raising with the emphasis on fostering independence and developing a strong ego to cope with modern stress. Education.

The Dorian Disaster, by John Prebble, Holt, Rinehart and Winston; 1969). Superbly told tale of hardships and heroism surrounding Scotland's first attempt, in 1698, to plant a colony in the New World History.

The Countdown Cookbook, by Florence Hirschfeld (Houghton, Mifflin; 1969). Complete dinner party menus for the space hostess, with preparations timed minute by minute. Science and Technology.

Dona Fellsa, Mariana Norris. This unusual, dynamic woman has been re-elected mayor of San Juan, Puerto Rico, for 20 years. Literature and Biography.

The Unperpetrated Society, by Milovan Djilas (Harcourt; 1969). A former leader of the Yugoslavian Communist party refutes the ideology of communism as a political form. Business and Social Science.

The Black Badge, by Frank Gell (Harper; 1969). Exposes the inefficiency, apathy, manipulation and corruption that trap the client (and sometimes the case-worker) in our welfare system. Business and Social Science.

The Feminized Male, by Patricia Sexton (Random; 1969). The unfortunate effect on males of having many women classroom teachers. Education.

The Golden Century: Europe 1598-1715 by Maurice Ashley (Praeger; 1969). Lively, well-illustrated account of the people, wars, thought, art and political institutions of Europe in an era of dramatic change. History.

The Plague Killers, by Greer Williams (Scribner; 1969). Story of campaigns against cholera, typhoid, malaria and yellow fever at the beginning of this century. Science and Technology.

All the News That Fits, by Herman Dinsmore. "The New York Times today is deliberately pitched to the so-called liberal point of view in its news and editorial columns." So starts the introduction of this highly critical work. A must for the so-called silent fans of Administration policy. Literature.

How to Control the Military, by J. K. Galbraith (Doubleday; 1969). Criticizes the growth and power of the military—industrial complex as foreign to our democratic policies. Business and Social Science.

Experiment at Berkeley, by Joseph Tussman (Oxford; 1969). Author offers a constructive alternative to the current educational impasse in higher education. Education.

The Lifeboat is Full, by Alfred A. Hasler (Funk and Wagnall; 1969). Thought provoking account of both heroic and regrettable Swiss reactions to the plight of refugees who fled Hitler's Germany. History.

Clockwork Man, by Lawrence Wright (Horizon Press; 1969). The story of time, its devices, and its effect on man. Science and Technology.

To Everything a Season, by Joyce Kilmer. Kilmer writes with an awareness of the simple things that are so often lost sight of in our complicated world: the birds, the forest. All of God's realm takes on a new meaning. Literature.

Aftershock, by Ellen Wolfe (Putnam; 1969). Focuses on the recovery of a woman who spent a month in a mental hospital following a nervous breakdown. Education.

The San Francisco Underground Gourmet, by R. B. Read (Simon and Schuster; 1969). Traveling Gourmets on a budget should check this guide to exotic but inexpensive restaurants in the city and bay area. History.

A Man's Home is His Hassle, by P. J. Laux. The creator of "the Purple Nuns of the Divine Retribution" gets in his licks at his own family. Others fall in the process too. Literature.

The New Black Poetry, by Clarence Major. Must reading for the white community as 76 black poets sing of their heritage. Literature.

Stages, by Emory Lewis. A discussion, decade by decade, of the people and happenings on Broadway, off Broadway, that have made American theater what it is—and what it is not. Literature.

The Protectors, by Harry E. Neal (Messner; 1968). How the Food and Drug Administration watches over the products we use. Science and Technology.

This is the Community College, by Edmund J. Gleason (Houghton-Mifflin; 1968). As background reading on a rapidly growing educational phenomenon, this book shows one educational response to a social need. Education and Religion.

Why Priests Leave, by John A. O'Brien (Hawthorn; 1969). Essays by priests who have left the ministry. An honest inside look at the Catholic priesthood. Education and Religion.

Homework, by Grace Langdon (John Day; 1969). Practical and commonsense approach to a problem plaguing parents, teachers and students. Education and Religion.

Graham Crusade Disappointing; Baptists Declare

Auckland, New Zealand — (RNS) — The New Zealand Baptist Union, which was among the strongest supporters of the Billy Graham Crusade here last February, have expressed some disappointment with its results.

"Over-all thinking in Baptist circles appears to be away from the large Crusade type of gathering," the Rev. Hugh Nees, general secretary of the Union said here.

The South Auckland Baptist Association had hoped that the whole-hearted support given to the Crusade would have resulted in a "significant growth in membership figures." An increase of only 11 followed.

SUNBEAM CLEAN and SAVE MONEY TOO!

Save money?
You say you know all about the advantages of gas heat. You think it's great. You wish you had it. But you think it costs more?

More than fuel "A". More than fuel "B" too.
Used to be that was true.
But not anymore.

While other fuels have been increasing in price, the cost of gas has remained the same.

That's why you can now heat your home for less with gas than with any other fuel.

Ask a heating contractor, or phone our Residential Heating Department.

CHRISTMAS: SYMPATHY AND LOVE

THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH

The following is the text of a letter received by Cardinal Cooke from Jean Cardinal Villot, Secretary of State to His Holiness:

Your Eminence,

POPE PAUL ASKS CARDINAL COOKE TO SPEAK FOR WAR VICTIMS IN THE HOLY LAND

Especially at the holy season of Christmas, the heart of the Holy Father goes out in sympathy and love to the families who are suffering as a result of wars in the Holy Land. The refugees among them already number more than a million, and this figure increases every day. For the most part they are forced to live miserably in tents, caves, hovels, in overcrowded camps and cities.

His Holiness asks Your Eminence, as President of the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, to be the voice of these voiceless ones, urging all men of good will, and their families, joyfully to share their abundance with the poor, inspired by the spiritual motives which Christmas evokes. As a token of love for the Infant Jesus on His Birthday, children should share with children, parents with parents, and priests, with priests, in holy emulation to relieve suffering and pain and to provide shelter and security.

Encouraging with paternal benevolence all the efforts made on behalf of refugees and the poor, the Sovereign Pontiff lovingly bestows upon Your Eminence, upon Monsignor John G. Nolan and his associates in the Pontifical Mission for Palestine, their devoted collaborators in the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, and all generous men of good will who contribute to these praiseworthy works, His special paternal Apostolic Blessing.

With the renewed assurance of my high esteem and consideration, I remain

Yours devotedly in Christ,
Jean Cardinal Villot

LOSE 10 lbs. in 10 days on Grapefruit Diet
HOLLYWOOD, CALIF.

(Special) — This is the revolutionary grapefruit diet that everyone is suddenly talking about. Literally thousands upon thousands of copies have been passed from hand to hand in factories, plants and offices throughout the U.S. and Canada. Word of its success has spread like wildfire. Because this is the diet that really works. We have testimonials in our files reporting on the success of this diet. If you follow it exactly, you should lose 10 pounds in 10 days. There will be no weight loss in the first four days. But you will suddenly drop 5 pounds on the 5th day. Thereafter you will lose one pound a day until the 10th day. Then you will lose 1 1/2 pounds every two days until you get down to your proper weight. Best of all, there will be no hunger pangs. Now revised and enlarged, this new diet plan lets you stuff yourself with foods that were formerly "forbidden," such as steaks trimmed with fat, roast or fried chicken, rich gravies, mayonnaise, lobster swimming in butter, bacon, fats, sausages and scrambled eggs. You can eat until you are full, until you cannot possibly eat any more. And still lose 10 pounds in the first ten days plus 1 1/2 pounds every two days thereafter until your weight is down to normal. The secret behind this "miraculous" weight loss diet is simple. Fat does not form fat. And the grapefruit juice in this new diet acts as a catalyst (the "trigger") to start the fat-burning process. You stuff yourself on the permitted foods listed in the diet plan, and still lose unsightly fat and excess body fluids. When the fat and bloat are gone you will cease to lose weight and your weight will remain constant. A copy of this new and startlingly successful diet plan can be obtained by sending $2 to GRAPEFRUIT DIET PUBLISHERS, DEPT. NO. 1555, 1215 Premier Way, Calgary 6, Alberta. Moneyback guarantee. If after trying the diet plan you have not lost 7 pounds in the first seven days, and 1 1/2 pounds every two days thereafter, simply return the diet plan and your $2 will be refunded promptly and without argument. Tear out this message as a reminder. Decide now to regain the trim, attractive figure of your youth, while enjoying hearty breakfasts, lunches and dinners...
