Following is a letter reprinted in the Jan. 4 parish bulletin: "Dear Father Heindl: "Each year I make it a point never to spend the pennies I receive as change at my daily trips to the store. Instead, I empty my wallet each evening and drop the pennies into a little bank shaped like a church.

When I read of your efforts to obtain a rug for the church sanctuary, I knew I had found a place for my pennies. After all, is there any organization more worthy than a church? "Please accept this contribution—may it bring beauty to the house of God. Yours truly, Mary Ellen H., Rochester, N.Y."

Only the interest is used, Ayer said. Each year the interest is given to some Newark civic, religious or charitable organization in memory of past exalted rulers who have died. The current award was given in memory of Ken Eaton and Robert Brown.

ALL IN T Snowed In...

By Sarah Child The blizzard of 1966 stands ed firmly in my mind. Like everyone else, our family first the ladder pinch in the milk bread departments.

Two years ago, starting in fall I began assembling canned boxes of dry foods and cans some narrow enclosed shelves the previous owner had built basement.

All through the winter ever the snow began to pile up, I went down and take a look at the doors of the narrow cupboards, in the knowledge that come may we could live for several without depending on a store

The shelves, he said, were way, interfering with the bc line he had set up for the st They'd have to come down.

Impressed with my foreth began taking down the shelves tents and putting them in ca boxes.

My husband was not quite pressed. True, there was one corned beef hash, several of package of spaghetti and seven of baked beans.

Two bottles of catsup, three jars of bread-and-butter pick six mason jars of tomatoes up the year before rounded blizzard hit.

Last year I didn't do mu
