Father Gaynor Maps Plans for Anniversary

Elmira Heights — Father Joseph T. Gaynor, pastor of St. Charles Borromeo Church, will celebrate his 25th year of ordination at a Mass in the church at 3 p.m. Sunday, May 3.

Father Paul Cuddy, chaplain of St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell, will preach the homily. There will be a reception in the parish hall from 4 to 7 p.m.

Father Gaynor was ordained March 17, 1945, in Sacred Heart Cathedral by Bishop James E. Kearney. He has served as assistant in parishes in Rochester, Auburn, Newark and Clyde, and was pastor of St. Catherine's Church, Addison, before being named pastor of St. Charles Borromeo last December.

Jesuit Activities Described at Annual Fete

Some 650 people heard reports on Jesuit missions and McQuaid High School last Monday at the annual fund-raising Jesuit - Mission dinner at the Flagship Hotel.

Bishop Martin Neely, coadjutor bishop in the Caroline Islands, was the main speaker as Jesuits unfolded their accomplishments and hopes to their benefactors.

Father William Reilly, president of Le Moyne College, was toastmaster and introduced head-table guests, including Bishop Hogan and Rochester Mayor Stephen May.

Father Ronald Sams, who is leaving shortly for Guam, and Father William Poorten used slides to describe Jesuit activities in the islands and at McQuaid.

Chairmen of the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Vincent J. Stanley and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cullane.

Catholic Lay Group Hears Bishop Hogan

Bishop Hogan was the guest of the Rochester Association of Catholic Laymen prior to his regular meeting Tuesday, March 12, at St. John Fisher College.

On arrival the Bishop moved about the room for a half hour, chatting personally with RACL members. He then was presented for remarks by Robert McLaughlin, association president.

Expressing appreciation at the opportunity to talk with the group, the Bishop commended the interest and zeal of its members in the progress and welfare of the Church.

After answering a number of questions about liturgy, integrated education, the Catholic school system, the diocesan newspaper, religious instruction, racism and other topics, the Bishop closed his informal visit by reiterating his pleasure at attending and declared he would look forward to another visit.

General comment following his departure reflected a majority view that he had answered questions readily and frankly and that the fact of his visit was a step in the direction of more dialogue between clergy and laity.

Holy Week Schedule Listed at Cathedral

Bishop Hogan will officiate at Palm Sunday, Holy Week and Easter rites at Sacred Heart Cathedral. His schedule:

Palm Sunday, March 22 — Blessing of Palms, 10 a.m.; Mass, 10:15 a.m.

Holy Thursday, March 26 — Christa Mass, 12 noon; Mass, 7:30 p.m. Good Friday — Liturgy of the Lord's Passion, 1:30 p.m. Holy Saturday — Easter Vigil, 7:30 p.m.; Mass of Resurrection, 8:30 p.m.

Easter Sunday—Easter Mass, 10:15 a.m.

There will be a low Mass and Holy Communion on Holy Thursday at 6:45 a.m.

Musical programs will allow for the singing of traditional hymns, psalms and responses by both choir and congregation, Father John S. Hayes, Cathedral rector, pointed out.

The Cathedral Boys Choir under the direction of William Ferris will perform works of Palestrina, Billings, Bach and Sowerby in addition to leading and complementing the congregation in the celebration of the Sacred Mysteries.

The Easter Sunday Mass will be highlighted by performances of "The Earth Feared and Was Silent"; an offertory anthem for Easter day composed by Ferris, and the "Halleluia Chorus" from the "Messiah."

Father James M. Moynihan, diocesan chancellor, noted last week that Bishop Hogan has granted the following permissions in accordance with faculties given him by the Holy See:

Holy Thursday — One low Mass may be celebrated in the morning, but only in parish churches; Holy Communion may be distributed during or immediately after Mass. Solemn services should be held between 4 and 9 p.m.

Good Friday — The liturgical services may be repeated.

Easter Vigil services may be celebrated early Sunday morning.

The annual collection for the Holy Land will be taken at the Good Friday service.

ST. AGNES GRAD WITH RED CROSS IN VIETNAM

Miss Peggy Lynd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lynd of Wellington Avenue, is with the Red Cross in Vietnam. She recently was assigned to the 23rd Infantry Division, her parents learned this week.

Miss Lynd, a graduate of St. Agnes High School, received a degree last June from the State University College at Albany, where she majored in history and political science.
