Marriage Symposium To Feature Fr. Kohler

Father Edward Kohler of Washington, D.C., national chaplain of the Christian Family Movement, will be featured speaker at three two-day symposiums on marriage slated this month at Notre Dame Retreat House, Canandaigua, for diocesan priests.

The sessions are scheduled April 13-14, April 16-17 and April 20-21. Priests have been urged to attend one of the three seminars.

Registration is slated at 2 p.m. on the opening day, and the conferences will be concluded at noon the following day with celebration of Mass and lunch.

Sessions will include a presentation of the diocesan Pre-Cana program by priest members of the staff and group discussions with married couples.

Among speakers will be Msgr. Gerard Krieg of the Diocesan Marriage Tribunal; Msgr. William H. Shannon, chaplain of Nazareth College; Father Michael Daly, chaplain of State University College at Brockport, and Stephen Maier of the Rochester Catholic Family Center.

ACT Program Graduates 19

Nineteen women who completed the Urban League's office training course received their certificates at graduation exercises last Friday. All have obtained full-time jobs, the league announced.

The 16-week course they took under the ACT program (Advancement through Clerical Training) has trained and placed 157 women since its inception in July, 1967, and the job retention rate has been 83 per cent, the announcement said.

More than 30 Rochester companies provide job experience during the course and employment afterward.
