Little League Day Planned

The Rochester Red Wings and Little League officials announce that Saturday night, June 6, will be Little League Day at Silver Stadium. This will mark the first time for such a day.

confirmed that someone from his office will be on hand.

There will be ceremonies prior to the game honoring local officials and individuals who have supported Little League baseball for many years.

Officials from Little League headquarters in Williamsport have promised that they will have representation here that day and also Commissioner Bowie Kuhn has promised that a notable representative and former major league star will be on hand to represent professional baseball.

On that day all Little Leaguers wearing their uniforms will be admitted free of charge, courtesy of Rochester Red Wings.

FOLK FESTIVAL

The Aquinas Institute scholarship fund will benefit from Greenfield Odyssey III, a folk music festival scheduled for 8 to 11 p.m. Saturday, April 11, at the Dewey Avenue school.

Cheerleader's Tourney Expected to Draw 1,200

Mayor Stephen May will present the trophies to the winning teams of the 12th annual CYO Invitational Cheerleader's Tournament slated Saturday, April 11 at the CYO Auditorium.

More than 1,200 cheerleaders representing 112 public and private high schools throughout the state will compete.

This year each team will perform two traditional cheers and the third cheer will be drawn by their team captain from one of 18 different situational cheers.

At the conclusion of the event, trophies will be awarded the winning teams at a dinner to begin at 5:30 p.m. Jack Palvino, (WBBF-Radio) will be toastmaster.

Tournament Director this year is Mrs. Helen Smith (Director Women's Athletics — R.I.T.). Arrangements Chairman is Mrs. Charles Zicari.
