Nazi Phenomena Reviewed

The Rev. Dr. Franklin H. Littell of Temple University has warned that the Nazi Germany experience of churches bending to suit political demands is being repeated "in Alabama and South Africa, Belfast and Beirut."

He told 200 historians, theologians and social scientists at Wayne State University, Detroit, that when Christianity is molded into a national, racial or cultural religion, it always winds up being anti-Jewish. Christianity's anchor, he added, is "its identification with the God of Israel." Anti-Semitism in Hitler's Germany was the focus of the convention.

Slayer Gets 15-Year Term

A 28-year-old man, who pleaded guilty to strangling a Catholic priest a year ago, was sentenced in Salem, Mo. to 15 years in prison.

George F. McEnerney of Ansonia, Conn., entered his plea to a charge of second degree murder in the death of Msgr. Howard C. Teacle, 46, of St. Louis. Police discovered his body last April in a motel room in Sullivan, Mo. McEnerney admitted that he and a companion decided to steal the priest's car and money, and that he choked the priest.

Catholic 'Lay Woman' Of Year'

Washington, D.C. — (RNS) — A Catholic lay woman, Mrs. Anna May Moynihan, has been named Church Woman of the Year by Religious Heritage of America.

Cited for "outstanding contributions to the religious life of America," Mrs. Moynihan will be honored at the RHA 20th annual awards dinner here June 18.

Previously announced was the winner of the Clergyman of the Year-honor — Archbishop Iakovos, primate of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of North and South America. A Churchman of the Year will be announced later.

In more than 25 years of volunteer work, Mrs. Moynihan has been affiliated with a number of national, civic, educational, and health-care institutions.

A resident of Washington, she is president of the Christ Child Society, a director of the National Council of Catholic Women, and vice-chairman of the Religious Educators Foundation.

Mrs. Moynihan is also a member of governmental and ecumenical organizations: the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, the Archbishop's Commission on Human Relations, the Ecumenical Commission and the Pastoral Commission of the Archdiocese of Washington, the Washington chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, and the Ecumenical Action Commission of the Council of Churches of Greater Washington.

A mother of three children whose husband, Edward C. Moynihan, is a certified public accountant, Mrs. Moynihan was awarded the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice Medal by Pope John XXIII in 1959.

ANGLICAN BISHOP

Ottawa, Ont. —(RNS)— The Ven. William Robinson, 53, was elected Anglican Bishop of Ottawa on the fourth ballot. He succeeds the late Bishop Ernest Reed. Archdeacon Robinson was rector of St. John's Anglican church here from 1955 to 1962.
