

THE POLLUTION WAR

Among many "Earth Week" activities at Good Shepherd School in Henrietta was collection of cans from neighborhood roads and lots. The thousands of cans were trucked to a Rochester brewery, accompanied by a bus full of pupils and some teachers. Brewery reluctantly agreed to accept the cans. Pictured are some of the 6th, 7th and 8th graders who collected them. Teachers in group, from left, include Sister Patricia Spellman, RSM., Michael Burns, Robert Tomeo, Sister Catherine Scheg, Jack Donova.

Button Talk

In accordance with National Conservation Day, members of St. Augustine's eighth grade, under the direction of Sister Kathleen Kircher, SSJ., led a school-wide "Conservation-Conscious Campaign." A large display poster was mounted in the main entrance, and buttons were made for each of the 679 students and faculty. Speeches were written and delivered by the students via the public address system and several appropriate homemade posters were distributed to local neighborhood stores.
