

English Teachers To Attend Meeting

Teachers in the diocesan parochial and secondary schools' departments of English will join some 3,000 other English teachers from elementary through university levels of instruction from Wednesday through Friday of this week in a convention in Syracuse.

Sister M. Beatrice, SSND, of the diocesan Schools' Office, a member of the executive committee of the New York State English Council, promoting attendance from this diocese, announced that 50 sessions of the conference would feature nearly 200 participants.

A number of educators from this diocese will be participants:

Sister Mary Joan Gleason, Effective Reading Improvement, St. Agnes High School.

Rev. William Poorten, S.J., Coordinator, McQuaid.

Sister Roger, Wonder of Words, St. Charles Borromeo.

Doris Jones, Wonder of Words, St. Thomas the Apostle School.

Sister Marie Malvoso, Wonder of Words, Annunciation School.

Sister Monica Weis, Wonder of Words, Our Lady of Lourdes.

Sister M. Beatrice, S.S.N.D., member, Executive Committee, current vice president representing elementary schools, Urban Reading Program for the 70's.

Sister Boniface, principal, Words are Wings — Nativity School, Brockport.

Nurse-Teachers Meeting Here

The school nurse-teachers of the state will assemble at the Flagship - Rochester tomorrow for a convention that runs through May 3. There are 2,200 of these professionals in the schools of New York, serving as nurses and also assisting in health education.

Among the speakers on their program is Father Timothy Weider of Perkinsville, director of project REACH. At 2 p.m. Saturday, he will discuss some aspects of rural poverty.

FORTY HOURS

Forty Hours devotions will begin May 3 at St. Francis of Assisi, Rochester; St. Thomas the Apostle, Irondequoit; St. Aloysius, Auburn; St. Mary, Corning, and in Avon, Livonia, Mendon and Seneca Falls.

John H. Florack Passes at 81
