Found Money

What would you do if you found a ten or twenty dollar bill? You could pay a debt. You could buy something. You could invest it. Or you could give it away. One thing for sure, you wouldn't just leave it!

Our sense of value behind a "piece of green paper" is a learned value. Remember trying to decide what to do with your 25c allowance? The feeling derived from the pay of your first job? The delight in receiving an income tax refund?

The gospel parable tells us of the woman who was very upset when she lost one of ten silver coins. She searched the house furiously because that one coin was equivalent to her husband's daily wage, and in those days the people of Palestine were taxed 40% or more of their income. When the woman found the coin she rejoiced and "called her friends and neighbors together."

In a sense, our tax refund is like finding a lost coin. This year would you share your tax refund—your "found money"—with the poor of the world? With your "neighbors and friends" in the missions who have "no coins"? With those who, unlike most of us, have needs, instead of wants.

The value of your money means so much more for them and for the missionaries serving their needs. Even the smallest sacrifice on your part can mean someone will have something to eat; someone will have medicine or clothes; someone will have the chance to learn to read; and someone will come to know about Christ and His Church.

The value of your support of the Church's missions cannot be measured in dollars and cents, as one cannot measure the value of a sacrifice made for others. A helping hand to the poor and suffering of today's world is truly a response of Christian love and mission awareness.

We beg you to use this once-a-year opportunity to share your tax refund as an investment for others, for Christ, and your Church. Can you afford to pass it by? We hope not.

Please clip out this column and enclose it with your sacrifice, whether a tax refund or not, it will be a "found coin" in the missions and a cause for many to rejoice.

SALVATION AND SERVICE are the work of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Please cut out this column and send your offering to Right Reverend Edward A. O'Meara, National Director, Dept. C, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001, or directly to your local Diocesan Director, Rev. Joseph F. Reinhart, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, New York 14604.
