

War Veterans' Convention Here

An estimated 400 persons are expected to attend the Department of New York, Catholic War Veterans, annual convention in Rochester May 14-17 at the Sheraton Hotel, according to Michael Terrigno, local commander.

The convention will open with Mass, to be celebrated at St. Joseph's Church at 8 p.m. on May 14.

Highlighting the weekend's activities will be the presentation of the "keys of the City of Rochester" to the club's State Commander, Neil Knowles, by Mayor Stephen May at a business session Friday morning.

The National Commander, Francis X. McBarron, of the club, will be the featured guest at a $10-a-plate convention banquet to be held on Saturday evening.

POLICE HOLY NAME SETS BREAKFAST

Bishop Hogan will address the Rochester Police Holy Name Society May 24 at their 34th annual communion breakfast, in the Sheraton Hotel.

Bishop Kearney will give the homily at the Mass, which will be celebrated by Father James Moynihan, police chaplain, at 7 a.m. in St. Joseph's Church, Franklin Street. Society members from the police forces of city, county and state will march from the church to the hotel. Outgoing president George Richardson will be master of ceremonies. Retired members may secure tickets through 232-7070, extension 219.

Incoming officers of the Police Holy Name are Charles Horvath, president; Michael Lancer, secretary, and William Connell, treasurer.

Father Wood to Celebrate 30th Anniversary

Father George S. Wood, pastor of Our Mother of Sorrows, will celebrate the 30th anniversary of his priesthood Tuesday, May 19, offering Mass at 7:30 p.m. A reception will follow in the parish hall.

Father Wood's concelebrants will be Fathers Frederick Eise-mann, William Gall, John Roach and Paul Wohrab. The Knights of St. John will attend in uniform.

This Friday night, May 15, parishioners will honor their pastor at a dinner dance at the Mapledale Party House. Bishop Hogan will be guest speaker.

Tickets are available at the rectory.

During Father Wood's pastorate, which began in 1961, Mother of Sorrows has built a new church, hall and rectory. For the five years preceding his appointment to the Greece church, Father Wood was diocesan director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Earlier, he had been assistant at Immaculate Conception, Rochester, for 16 years. He has served as chaplain to several groups and on the boards of Montgomery Center and the Association to Help Retarded Children.

The littlest bank in town won't get any richer offering you honest-to-goodness;
no-strings-attached free
checking accounts.

Wojd Smith
We'll just make an awful lot of new friends.

We're still a fairly long last in the city's line of commercial banks. That's why we simply can't afford to give our customers anything but the best service a bank can offer.

The kind of service you'd expect from the only privately owned and governed commercial bank in metropolitan Rochester.

When we say that our new personal checking accounts are absolutely free, we mean just that. Other banks will try to make the same statement but don't let it fool you. There's always one little hitch somewhere.

Look. We'll furnish you with personalized checks. As many as you need.

Free. Monthly statements, minimum balances will be our problem. Not yours. No hidden, unsolicited lines of credit, either.

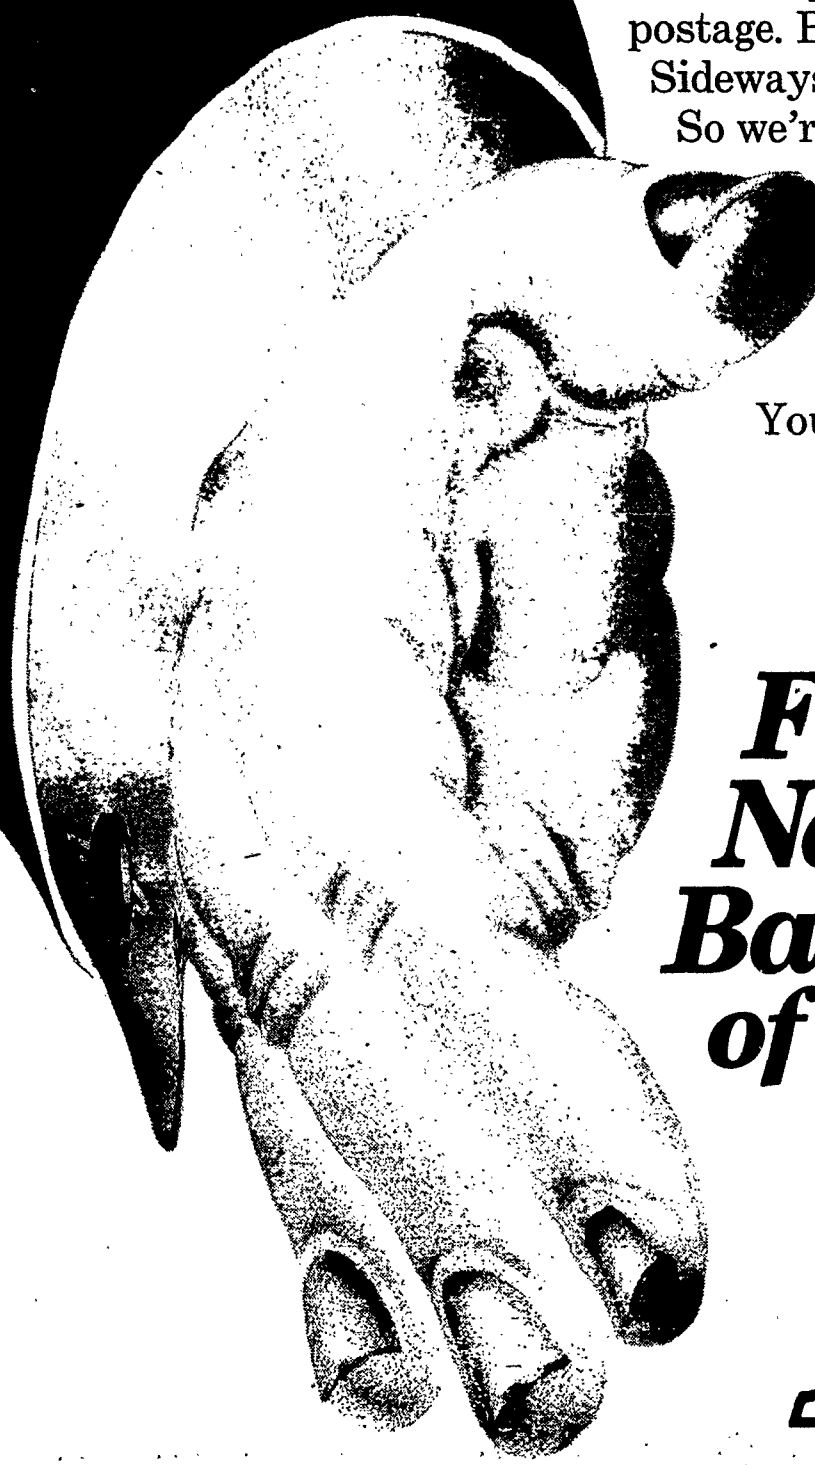

We'll even pay your bank-by-mail postage. Both ways.

Sideways if necessary.

So we're the littlest full service bank in town.

It doesn't mean we're country boys. We mean business.

Your business.
