Larry Weise Holy Name Tourney At McQuaid Won by Truckers Sports Night

Larry Weise, head basketball coach at St. Bonaventure University, will be principal speaker Sunday night, May 24, at the annual McQuaid Jesuit High School sports banquet.

The dinner will begin at 6:30 at the school. More than 700 are expected.

A new prize, the University Award, given by John H. Ryan of Pittsford, will go to a student chosen as outstanding in both athletic and academic performance.

Father Eugene A. Zimpfer, moderator of athletics, reported that more than 45 per cent of the students had earned letters or certificates in interscholastic sports. A highlight of the program, he said, will be the announcement of the Sportsmanship Award, for conduct on and off the playing field.

Aquinas Loses To Franklin

Father John Menner, former Aquinas baseball coach, stood behind the Ben Franklin bench last week before the Aquinas-Franklin City-Catholic League game at the Franklin field.

"Hey, Coach," he shouted to the Franklin mentor who was walking to the third base coaching box for the start of the game. "I understand you're going to win another game ... not today, though."

At that time Father Menner's prediction looked to be a pretty safe bet since Aquinas had just belted Jefferson High 4-2 the night before and was looking better with each game.

And the prediction looked even better from Aquinas' viewpoint after the Irish scored a run in the first inning and had two men on base in the second.

But everything was bright for Franklin after that as the Quakers picked both men off, then exploded in the third inning with five runs and picked up still another in the sixth to upset the Irish 6-1.

Lefty Wyatt, a nifty curveballing southpaw, pitched five-hit, 12-strikeout ball for Franklin to lead his team to victory.
