

Retreat for Teenagers at Marion

Forty-two teenagers of several faiths took part in a four-day retreat May 8-12 at St. Gregory Church, Marion. Father C. Richard Nangle, pastor (left foreground) points finger as Father Joseph Bernier, SSS., of New York City (left rear), who conducted the sessions, looks on. Theme was Formation of a Christian Character, with conferences on prudence, justice, temperance, fortitude. Retreat closed with explanation of the Mass, or as Father put it, "a blow by blow description of what goes on at the altar." He termed the Marion teenagers "great, polite, wonderful!"
